How long has it been, "old" Mary Baldwin, since you saw that program? Many of us, we feel sure, have not seen one since you were in school. In days crowded with interests and duties and "living," you have not forgotten your Alma Mater; but because she has asserted no claim, you have assumed she did not need you. However, in gratitude for all that she gave you, the time has come when we, her daughters, should give something back to her.

MARY BALDWIN COLLEGE

To meet the demands of this "new" day, it is essential that the "new" daughters of Mary

Baldwin leave her halls equipped, as were we, with a sound education and high ideals for a life of service. In addition, they should go out equipped with a diploma from a Standard A-1 College.

In Dean Marianna P. Higgins' address, quoted in the November NEWS LETTER, she set out clearly and succinctly the requirements of such a college. In closing she said:

"You will readily see the two requirements which are absolutely necessary for full recognition of the splendid work now being done at Mary Baldwin are the endowment of $500,000 and the complete separation of the college and preparatory school. These problems will have to be solved if we wish to preserve and promote the life and the spirit and the full success not only of Mary Baldwin College, but also of Mary Baldwin Seminary."

(By the way, if you did not receive your copy of the November NEWS LETTER, advise us, and it will be sent you.)

THE ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION

We cannot begin even to plan to aid our Alma Mater to become this Standard A-1 College until we ourselves become an active, representative, informed Alumnae Association.

The first essential of which is:

"EVERY MARY BALDWIN GIRL A MEMBER OF THE MARY BALDWIN ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION."

We are happy to report that, in response to our plea in the November NEWS LETTER, 154 girls have joined the Association. We welcome these new members with open arms. It is impossible to make you fully understand how greatly your coming has encouraged us in our difficult task of organization.

But, alas, there are yet 4,946 "Eligibles" who have not joined us. We fully appreciate that your dereliction is our fault. From the day you left Mary Baldwin until the receipt of the November NEWS LETTER (if, in fact, you received it), you may have had no word from your Alumnæ Association, no plea to join it, no report of its proceedings—nothing to put you, or keep you, in touch with it.

MEMBERSHIP

For this reason, we are sending these first issues of THE NEWS LETTER to every old girl whose address we have—we are doing this on our faith in you—we believe there will be a sufficient response in membership to pay our printers. The splendid membership response from the November NEWS LETTER left us a small surplus in our treasury. This number, which is eight times the size of the November issue, is, of course, just eight times as expensive. Our faith in YOU is eight times greater, for we expect eight times the response—ONE THOUSAND NEW MEMBERS.

Would YOU not like to be ONE of this ONE THOUSAND? If so, sign the enclosed membership slip and send it, with One Dollar (the yearly membership dues), to our National Treasurer. We are offering you a real bargain—many Associations charge three dollars, some five, and others as much as ten!

Each day we read of the Alumni and Alumnæ Associations of Universities and Colleges raising large sums for buildings on campuses, or to establish special courses. Many of these institutions have no larger number of "old" girls, or "old" boys, than has Mary Baldwin; but they are actively serving their Alma Mater!

ALUMNÆ DAY—MAY 23RD

In recognition of our wish to serve her, Mary Baldwin has set apart one whole day of Commencement Week for us, and this day has been placed in the middle of the program, Monday, May 23rd, indicating that we are, in truth, a very real part of the Commencement Celebration.

We are convinced that a visit to your Alma Mater would not only be a joy to YOU, but that it would arouse your pride, enthusiasm, and admiration for her, renew your love for her, and enkindle your desire to further serve her. With Dean Higgins' co-operation, we are planning a program that will, we hope, interest you.

ALUMNÆ DAY PROGRAM

Sunday, May 22nd, 5:00 p. m.—Placing of wreaths on graves of Miss Baldwin and Miss Strickler.

Monday, May 23rd, 10:00 a. m.—Business meeting of Mary Baldwin Alumnæ Association in Girls' Parlor.

Monday, May 23rd, 4:00 p. m.—Pageant on the Campus by the girls of Mary Baldwin College and Mary Baldwin Seminary.

Monday, May 23rd, 7:00 p. m.—Alumnæ Dinner in Mary Baldwin Dining Hall.

Monday, May 23rd, 8:30 p. m.—Play by student of Mary Baldwin School of Expression, complimentary to the Alumnæ Association and Visiting Patrons.

WHEN SPRING COMES UP THE SHENANDOAH

When Spring comes up the Shenandoah

She makes a sudden sally—
Swift as a blush on Beauty's cheek
She flushes up the Valley!

She passes as in royal state—
The rivers rush to meet her,
The mountains smile as she goes by,
The orchards bloom to greet her!

All Beauty's cohorts, lining up,
Salute their sov'reign passing—

The vagrant breezes mobilize,
Their fragrant forces massing

The birds make music for her march,
The hoarse bees add their humming—
The joyful cattle on the hills,
Deep-throated, hail her coming!

The dogwood flings white banners out
To greet her every turning,
And high on steep, blue mountain sides,
Are red-bud beacons burning

So Spring comes up the Shenandoah!
I, who have seen her, pity
Those who must be content to see
Her passing—in a city!

The poem is our own Roselle Mercier Montgomery's, and we hope Roselle herself will be with us—Roselle, whose high adventuring with the Muse has brought her fame.

MARY BALDWIN MOTORCADES

Alumnæ Day is fortunately at the time "When Spring comes up the Shenandoah," the ideal time, for Baldwin girls to view again the lovely Shenandoah Valley. Our government, as you know, has only recently established the Shenandoah National Park, and you will pass through a part of the Park Area, no matter from what direction you come.

We beg you to make up parties, trim your cars with yellow and white streamers, or charter a big motor bus as Sue Stribling Snodgrass and the other Alumnæ of Martinsburg, W. Va., hope to do, gathering up Alumnæ enroute in Charles Town, Winchester, and Shepherds-town, and "when spring comes back with rustling shade, and apple blossoms fill the air," COME BACK TO MARY BALDWIN FOR ALUMNÆ DAY!

Write to us for a list of Baldwin girls in your city or community and arrange a motorcade. Study the lists of Alumnæ in this NEWS LETTER; find out where your old chums are now living; arrange to meet them at MARY BALDWIN ON ALUMNÆ DAY!

COME BACK, dear Baldwin girls! Your Alma Mater will give you a loving welcome;

Mr. King will greet you with open arms—all of you—although, of course, his "RED HEADS" will have first place, even though once tawny locks may now be graying; the Staunton Alumnæ will be at hand to do all within their power to make your visit a joy!

LOCAL CHAPTERS TAKE NOTE!

We expect that each Chapter will send representatives to the May meeting and that these delegates will give us a full report of the activities of the Chapters. Especially, we hope, they will be able to tell us of increased membership.

We also hope that local Chapters will have studied thoroughly the proposed new Constitution, set out in the June Bulletin, 1926, and that they will offer suggestions that will add to the effectiveness of the Constitution before its final adoption.

We further hope that the report from each Chapter will embody a complete list of members and of those "eligible" for membership, with correct addresses and with birthday dates. This will be of great value to us in our effort to obtain a correct record of our Alumnæ.

FORMATION OF CHAPTERS

It is with great pleasure that we report the formation of a few new Chapters and the getting under way for the formation of others. We fully appreciate, in this day of over-organization, that one who attempts to persuade another to join something else, has a difficult task. Nevertheless, we know that scattered Alumnæ must form local Chapters, in order to function effectively in the work of the National Association. Therefore, we repeat our plea carried in the November NEWS LETTER.

"Will you not do a splendid service for your Alma Mater, and write us for the list of old girls, in your community, and with this list in hand, call them together and form a local chapter?"

This means no arduous work—local chapters need not meet often; but with properly elected officers and with constitutions and By-Laws, based on those of the National Association, it will give organization, and in organization there is strength."

NEW CHAPTERS

Lynchburg, Va., February 24, 1926:

President—Mrs. Lillian Baird Parks Pritchett, 13 Woodstock Apts.

Vice-President—Mrs. Alice James Aunsbaugh Kyle, 3809 Peakland Place.

Treasurer—Mrs. Katherine R. Adkerson Wood, 1379 Rivermont Ave.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Mary Macon Pettyjohn, 700 Federal St.

Secretary—Miss Emma Maxwell Harris, 1700 Rivermont Ave.

Dates of Meetings—Third Tuesdays in January, April, and October.

PROSPECTIVE CHAPTERS

Baltimore, Md.:

MISS VIRGINIA LEE MARCHANT, 1818 Bolton St., wrote us:

"If you will send me a list of the old Baldwin girls in Baltimore, it would be a pleasure for me to interview them individually and get their opinion on an Alumnae Chapter here. . . . From what information I have gathered I would suggest a Chapter in this city."

MISS MARCHANT is a well-known teacher of drawing, with large classes, nevertheless she has undertaken this work for her Alma Mater. There are in Baltimore and vicinity 89 Baldwin girls. Will not each one of you get in touch with Miss Marchant and together organize a Baltimore Chapter before May first? Then come to us 100 per cent. strong on Alumnae Day!

MISS DOROTHEA DOBSON, Peabody Apts., Calvert and 30th Sts., wrote: "Is there an Alumnae Chapter in Baltimore? If so, how can I get in touch with it? I spend every winter here."

MRS. HARMAN F. MEYER, JR. (Jessie Hawks), Ruxton, Md., wrote: "I am very much interested in the work of the Alumnae Association and am eager to keep in touch with it."

MRS. H. H. BEIDLEMAN (Katherine Duncan), 1948 W. North Ave., wrote: "I should like to be affiliated with the nearest Alumnae Chapter. Can you put me in touch?" And adds: "I see you want news of children. I have two boys, Barkley, six, and Edward, two."

MRS. W. M. BUCHANAN (Julia McCay), 930 N. Charles St., wrote:

"How can I thank you dear Staunton people for sending me this NEWS LETTER—so interesting and so full of information!"

These letters indicate that Miss Marchant will meet with enthusiasm and co-operation in her task of organization.

Roanoke, Va.:

On March 16th, our President, Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, will meet with the Baldwin girls in Roanoke and vicinity for the purpose of organizing a Chapter there. The preliminary work is in the hands of Mrs. Sarah Poague Caldwell-Butler, Mrs. Rachel M. Speck-Cooksey, Mrs. Fan Lee-Williams, and Mrs. Willie Walker-Caldwell. With such able sponsors, we feel a Roanoke Chapter is a certainty.

Christiansburg, Va.:

Miss Missouri Miller, of Blacksburg, Va., has undertaken to organize the Baldwin girls at Blacksburg, Christiansburg, Dublin, Floyd, and Millsville. There are eleven "eligibles." We expect her to report at the May meeting that the full quota are affiliated.

Waynesboro, Va.:

Alumnae from Waynesboro and Vicinity are included in the Staunton and Augusta County Chapter. However, on account of the large area covered, it seems wise to have a branch Chapter in Waynesboro, including the immediate surrounding district. Mrs. E. C. McPherson (Evelyn Chase) has undertaken this organization work. We beg the Alumnae of Waynesboro and its vicinity to get in touch with her.

Martinsburg, W. Va.:

Miss Frances H. Burdette (Fairstone, R. R. D. No. 6), has expressed her willingness to organize a Chapter, which will include Martinsburg, Charles Town, and Shepherdstown, after March 15th, her duties before that date preventing this undertaking. She will have as a most able assistant Mrs. Sue Stribling Snodgrass. And right here we must tell you of the splendid co-operation Sue Stribling Snodgrass is giving us. She has aided us with most helpful suggestions and, in addition, has sent us many of the news items in our "DO YOU KNOW?"

Southwest Virginia Chapter:

Elizabeth Browning MacConnell (Pocahontas, Va.), wrote: -

"I am wondering why we can't have a 'Southwest Virginia' Chapter? Or do we? I know of about a dozen "old girls" in Bluefield, W. Va., Tazewell, Va., Wytheville, Va., and Bluefield, Va. We could meet easily at Bluefield, W. Va., as the majority live there."

We have written begging her to organize this Chapter, and we shall expect a strong representation at the May meeting. In her letter, she also said:

"Although I just graduated in the last year, I'm realizing already just what my four years at Mary Baldwin means to me."

Missouri Chapter:

Mrs. E. C. Scott (Arlie Crockett), 111 Price St., Columbia, Mo., wrote: "I wish it were possible to have a Chapter out here somewhere, either St. Louis or Kansas City. We could help a little more and I am so interested—I love Mary Baldwin." We have asked her to undertake the organization of such a Chapter. Further on, she said:

"I have one son, twelve, Edgar Crockett Scott, and I hope to have him attend one of Virginia's excellent Military Schools."

Nashville, Tenn.:

Eleanor Folk (1720 Blair Road), wrote: "I hardly think anything can be done now; but perhaps next fall plans may be laid to organize the Chapter."

We accept her judgment as to the best time for this work. We intend, however, to hold her to her promise to do this organization work. We trust Nashville Alumnae reading this will make a mental reservation to include membership in the Nashville Chapter of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association in the list of their activities for next fall.

MEMBERSHIP DRIVES

New York:

Mrs. George Felter (Janetta Baker), 780 St. Marks Ave., Brooklyn, on February 2nd, sent out a circular letter, in which she called upon former students to demonstrate their loyalty by joining the Alumnae Association. At the time of our going to print, we have twelve new members and four renewals, in response to her call. We are deeply indebted to Mrs. Felter for this wonderful assistance, and we trust other loyal daughters of Mary Baldwin will follow her lead and write letters to friends and acquaintances, urging them to join the National Association. We will co-operate by sending copies of THE NEWS LETTER, whenever a request is received.

Georgia:

Mrs. Louis E. Chalenor (Elizabeth Hanger), 793 Juniper St., N. E., Atlanta, wrote:

"The Advisory Board (Atlanta Chapter) will assemble with me this week to perfect plans for a large and elegant luncheon to be held during Grand Opera Week, hoping many out of town girls will attend." She asked for lists of all Georgia and Florida Alumnae. These were rushed to her, and we anticipate a great response in membership.

Staunton and Augusta County Chapter:

Since the publication of the November NEWS LETTER there have been additions to the home Chapter, but there are still two hundred and odd Alumnae not affiliated. The annual meeting of the Chapter is held early in April. The week before this meeting is to be devoted to a drive for membership. There will be personal solicitation and every Mary Baldwin girl not now affiliated will be urged to join the National Association and the Staunton Chapter as well.

LOST ALUMNÆ AND CORRECT ADDRESSES

The lists that you will find in this number of THE NEWS LETTER represent a stupendous undertaking—the names of Baldwin girls, through and including the class of 1925-1926, and every address we could find.

We are printing these lists—imperfect as they are—for many reasons, one being the pleasure it will be to you to find your old friends. In return, we BEG YOU to help us.

Study the lists carefully and send us—on the slips enclosed for that purpose—corrected names and addresses. There are many Baldwin girls whose names do not even appear among the LOST ALUMNÆ. If you know any of these, send them to us. If you find we have listed among the living some one now dead, advise us of this fact.

The expense of printing these lists will prohibit our publishing them again. Therefore, we urge you to preserve this number of THE NEWS LETTER. Carry it with you, as you travel, and as you come in contact with “old girls,” see if we have the addresses correct; if not, advise us at once. These lists are our “working basis” for an Alumnæ Association, as well as for an Alumnæ Directory.

The goal of our year's work is the publication of these lists, and the hope that, through them, we may obtain the correct name and address of every Mary Baldwin girl.

We are able to publish the lists only because many loyal Alumnæ have contributed hours and hours of volunteer work in their preparation. We wish again to express our deep gratitude to them, as well as to those who address the envelopes in which our NEWS LETTERS go to you, and who fold and place the NEWS LETTERS within those envelopes. With the means at our command, we could do none of these things were we compelled to pay for the service.

MARY BALDWIN ALUMNÆ DIRECTORY

In many letters received since the November NEWS LETTER, the wish has been expressed that we publish a MARY BALDWIN ALUMNÆ DIRECTORY. We can quote from but one letter:

“I think it perfectly wonderful that you are undertaking such a huge task as getting the addresses, etc., for the Alumnæ Directory. It will be one of the biggest things that Mary Baldwin can do to keep the old girls together and I, for one, cannot tell you how glad I am.”

This Directory should contain the following information:

(1) an alphabetical list of the old girls; (2) a list giving the married names; (3) a geographical list, enumerating the old girls in the various towns and cities of the United States; and (4) a list of the graduates by years.

In addition, it would be exceedingly interesting if our married Alumnæ would send us the names and birth dates of their children.

We are attaching a slip for advanced orders for this Directory. If we have a sufficient response to justify its publication, we will undertake it. If published, the Directory will be a convenient size to carry in one's handbag, and having it at hand should lead to delightful renewals of old friendships.

BIRTHDAYS

We regret that space will not permit our quoting from the many letters we have received, expressing appreciation of and pleasure in our birthday remembrance. Please send us the day and month of your birth—AT ONCE—whether you join the Association or not—we want to send you your gift.

THE CHRISTMAS SALE

Although letters have been written, thanking the many who sent hand-made articles for the Sale, held on December 2nd, for the benefit of the College Fund, we wish again to express our appreciation. There was a beautiful array of articles, and the occasion was enjoyable in every way. The returns were $517.16.

INFORMATION AND SERVICE BUREAU

We are happy to report that we have had many letters, asking for information, which, in almost every case, we have been able to supply. We were particularly glad to send lists of Baldwin girls to several girls who were moving into new localities.

During January and February the Bureau was, unfortunately, not functioning, and letters were not answered. This we very much regret. However, we do not expect this to occur again, and we want you to flood us with requests.

For the benefit of those who may not have seen the November NEWS LETTER, we repeat just what this Bureau wishes to do:

While we await the publication of our Directory, if you, by chance, want the address of an old friend, write us and we will take pleasure in sending you the information our card indexes contain.

Perhaps you have moved into a new community, or are contemplating such a move, or perhaps your daughter is marrying and going to some distant city or state. Would you like the names and addresses of the old Baldwin girls in this new home? Write us. We will send them to you. And, further, we will write to those Baldwin girls and tell them of you or of your little daughter and thus prepare a welcome for you, or for her.

Do you plan a visit to your Alma Mater, or are you sending your daughter, your granddaughter, or some other little girl back to her? Or are you sending your son to some one of the many Military Schools or Colleges near Staunton? If so, write us of these things, so that we may extend some courtesy to you or to those dear to you.

Letters should be addressed to Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, Kable Station, Staunton, Va.

RESPONSES TO NOVEMBER NEWS LETTER

Many charming things have been written us about the November NEWS LETTER. This, together with the splendid response in membership (we repeat ourselves, we know, but we are very proud of our 154 new members), has encouraged us tremendously.

These letters also brought us many names and addresses, which we have included in our lists, and many news items:

RIZPAH F. DUDLEY (Ft. Defiance, Va.), wrote:

"You may be interested to know that I have been here (Montevallo, Ala.) for the past three years, since my degree at the University of Virginia as general supervisor of Alabama College Training School and Secondary Education Instructor in the College."

ELEANOR FOLKS (Nashville, Tenn.), says:

"I am making my plans to be at Mary Baldwin for Commencement."

MRS. JOHN HANNA (Frances Griffin), 1417 Market St., Galveston, Texas, told us:

"I have seven grand-daughters, and I could wish nothing better for them than that they may attend Mary Baldwin. Their ages now run from one week to fourteen years." Her own daughter, Margaret Edmonia Hanna, is now Mrs. M. F. Kreisler, 199 W. 31st St., Austin, Texas.

MRS. JOHN KEITH MADDIN (Elizabeth Jackson Buckner), 318 Fairfax Ave., Nashville, Tenn., wrote:

"I have another young lady in my family, born June 3rd, Mary Belle Keith Maddin. . . . Some day I hope I can steal away from my family and come up to Staunton."

MRS. H. R. POOLE (Mary Ellen Howard), Sutton, W. Va., wrote:

"I am enjoying such an interesting life as the wife of a young minister. Am Y. P. Worker, Auxiliary Officer, Housekeeper, and, oh, finest of all, mother of the most precious baby daughter that ever lived."

MRS. HENRY CHESTER YOUNG, JR. (Helen Durbin), 149 Herbert Road, Boston, Mass., wrote asking us to send her the names of the Baldwin girls in her vicinity, and she told us she has a son, three years old, Henry Chester Young, Third.

MISS WEIMAR wrote us, on November 19th:

"I am reading the Alumnæ paper with much interest. I hope for its future a very successful career and that each year may increase the interest of the Alumnae, as well as its members." Her letter shows she retained her love for and interest in Mary Baldwin up to the end of her life, for she died on December 28, 1926. Although in failing health for the past few years, Miss Weimar was confined to her bed for only a few weeks before her death. Her obituary, and the obituaries of other Alumnae who have passed on during this last year, will, as usual, appear in the June Bulletin.

The sudden death of Nora Blanding Fraser, in Baltimore, on January 4, 1927, was not only a great shock to her family, but to the entire community. She had gone to Baltimore to spend the Christmas vacation, confidently expecting to resume her classes at Mary Baldwin at the close of her holiday. Her life, like that of Miss Weimar, touched many Baldwin girls, and her going leaves a gap that cannot be filled.

DO YOU KNOW

That the officers of your Alumnae Association are?:

President—Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, Kable Station, Staunton, Va.

Vice-President—Mrs. Lizzie Hanger Chale-nor, 793 Juniper St., N. E., Atlanta, Ga.

Second Vice-President—Mrs. Emily Pancake Smith, "Waverley," Staunton, Va.

Recording Secretary—Mrs. Ellen Howison
Christian, Box B, Staunton, Va.

Corresponding Secretary—Miss Harriet
Sproul, "Braeburn," Staunton, Va.

Treasurer—Miss Fannie Strauss, 315 N.
New St., Staunton, Va.

That the Chairmen of our organized Chapters are?:

Atlanta, Ga.—Mrs. Elizabeth Hanger-Chale-nor (Mrs. L. E.), 793 Juniper St., N. E.

Knoxville, Tenn.—Mrs. Ina Ast-Paine (Mrs.
W. H.), 1515 Yale Ave.

New York City—Mrs. Celeste Wilder-Blake
(Mrs. Kenneth M.), 250 Riverside Drive.

Staunton, Va.—Mrs. Charlotte Ranson Taylor.

Washington, D. C.—Miss Margaret Daniel,
The Cumberland.

Western Pennsylvania—Miss May Hoover, Somerset, Pa.

Lynchburg, Va.—Mrs. Lillian Baird Parks
Pritchett, 13 Woodstock Apts.

That the Chairmen of local chapters become "ex-officio" members of the Executive Committee of the Alumnae Association, and, as such, have the right to participate in all proceedings and to vote on all measures? It is planned to call the Executive Committee together in October, January, March, and May of each year.

That MRS. H. P. COOPER (Amelia Pearson),
Lebanon, Ky., is now Synodical President of Kentucky? When returning from the meeting of the Federation of Women's Boards of Foreign Missions of North America, at Atlantic City, she visited Mrs. Jane Faulkner
White in Martinsburg, W. Va. An old school mate writing of her said: "She was always brilliant and handsome; she is still both. She spoke at our church on Sunday evening, and at teas, luncheons, and everywhere proved herself unusual and charming in every way."

That JULIA GRAHAM AUNSPAUGH, 625 Graydon Park, Norfolk, Va., chaperons parties for travel in the United States and Europe? Recently she wrote us: "I sat at Miss Baldwin's right hand the first year I was at school. I can see her now with her red crocheted cape over her shoulders, fixing a saucer of milk for the dog. How I did long to be with you last fall when Roselle Mercier was there!"

That we hope to have MRS. E. C. DARLING
(Elizabeth P. Kent), Monroe Terrace, Richmond, Va., with us on Alumnae Day? Mrs.
Darling traveled extensively with her husband before his death, her most interesting experience probably being the months she spent in Russia during the World War.

That Governor Harry F. Byrd appointed
Dean Higgins at the request of the Alumni Council of Virginia, a delegate to the Conference on Higher Education called by that Council to meet in Richmond, February 9-10, 1927?

Miss Higgins has just returned from the meeting of the National Educational Association which was held in Dallas, Texas, in February. While in Dallas, she was delightfully entertained by friends and old Seminary girls. Amongst those who gave her pleasure were Miss Dorothy Exline, Mrs. Lee Chesley Rountree (Elizabeth Kemble), Mrs. Edward Y. Holt (Margaret Skillman), Mrs. M. P. Exline, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Dyke, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Moore (Lucile Dyke), Mr. and Mrs. James M. Warlick (Mildred Robertson), Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schoolar, Mrs. Morris Turner, and Mrs. Bayly King.

Virginia L. Bivens (721 D. St., N. W., Ardmore, Okla.), graduate of 1926, writing from Yuma, Arizona, said:

"You cannot possibly imagine my surprise when, just now, I picked up the Dallas News and found myself looking straight into your face (Dean Higgins). But along with the pleasant surprise was the very great disappointment that neither Mother nor I was at home to entertain you in our home, the very first time you came to this section of the country. . . .

"And 'Thank you' for the little visit with you in the Dallas News."

That the Garden Club of Virginia will meet in Staunton on May 25, 26, 27? Will all Baldwin girls who plan to attend this meeting, advise us?

That many "old girls" have visited Mary Baldwin during this school year without getting in touch with the President of the Alumnae Association, or the Alumnae office? This is a great disappointment to us. We again beg you to put us on your "calling" list. We want to see you, and the Staunton Chapter would like to show you some courtesies during your visit.

That The Bluestocking, the Mary Baldwin College Annual, will devote some of its pages this year to the Alumnae? We appreciate this compliment paid us by the College girls of today.

That the New York Times recently carried a picture of LUCY PAGE COFFMAN, under the caption: "To Study in Paris: Graduate of the California School of Arts and Crafts, who has won First Prize in the entrance examination for the Ecole des Beaux Arts"? Lucy Page graduated from Mary Baldwin in 1924, and has written a charming little brochure, entitled, "What Mary Baldwin Has Done for Me." Her Paris address is, 42 rue de Moscou.

That ELVA LEE CHEW was married on November 6, 1926, to Frank Scott Portillo, and lives at 1410 Euclid St., N. W., Washington, D. C.

That contributions to the Mary Baldwin Scholarship, established in 1919, are solicited during March? Katherine See, granddaughter of Mary Rebecca Gamble, whose mother is a home missionary in the mountains of Southwest Virginia, is the present beneficiary. Mrs. Annie Hotchkiss-Howison ('76), and Mrs. Kate Nelson-Stout ('74), both of Staunton, are Chairman and Treasurer of the Missionary Scholarship Committee, respectively.

We hope you will find it possible to contribute to this most worthy cause.

WILL YOU

ORDER a Directory?

STUDY the lists and SEND us correct names and addresses?

PRESERVE your lists, TAKE them with you when you travel, LOOK up old girls, and WRITE us news of them and of yourself?

NOTIFY us whenever you change your address, marry, have a new baby?

JOIN THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION TODAY AND DO YOUR PART TO ELIMINATE THIS PROBLEM?

Mary Baldwin News Letter

Published by the Alumnae Association of Mary Baldwin College

VOL. 2 STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, JULY, 1927 No. 2

The Purpose of the Mary Baldwin News Letter is to inform all Mary Baldwin girls of what the College, the Alumnae Association, and its members are doing

The annual business meeting of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association was held in the Parlor, Monday, May 23, 1927, at 10:00 and was opened with a prayer by Dr. A. Fraser, President of the Mary Baldwin College. A special prayer was offered for the Society of Cornelia Ada Morgan, an alumna, a missionary in the interior of China.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved.

Mrs. Lizzie Hanger-Chalenor, Vice-President, occupied the chair while the President gave her report:

MRS. RUSSELL'S REPORT

Members of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association and Fellow Alumnae:

The pleasantest part of my duty today is to welcome many of you who have been attending our annual meetings for many years, and have, further, the great pleasure of including many who have but recently joined the Association.

Because our NEWS LETTERS have told, in detail, the work of the past ten months (I assume all of you have read our NEWS LETTERS, of course), it seems to me I need now only give you a little summary of the work. It is perhaps needless to say that our accomplishments have fallen short of our anticipations—nevertheless, I do feel the work of establishing a contact with our scattered Alumnae has been well begun.

Some of you may not know that the condition upon which I accepted the Presidency of the Association was that funds be provided for the employment of a part-time Secretary. Now otherwise, with the limited time at my disposal and at the disposal of our Executive Committee—all busy women—could we hope to enlarge our Association, both in membership and in usefulness to our Alma Mater?

The Mary Baldwin College Board was asked for $200.00 for this preliminary experiment, and at a meeting of our Executive Committee, June 28, 1926, plans were discussed and the following definite program for our year's work made:

(1) To publish four times yearly an Alumnae publication—the MARY BALDWIN NEWS LETTER—and to send this NEWS LETTER to every "old" girl whose name we could find (the number then being 3500), using this publication, not only as a means of renewing the old girl's contact with Mary Baldwin, but very definitely using it, by means of slips enclosed, for securing membership and information. By adopting a neat, but cheap, form for this publication, we have been able to reach all the old girls for a very small comparative cost, and the results are most encouraging.

(2) To send birthday greeting cards to every old girl whose birthday we could secure.

(3) To do all we could to persuade each organized chapter to put on a membership drive and enroll in the National Association and the local chapter every Mary Baldwin girl in that city or locality.

(4) To stress, in every possible way, October 4th, Miss Baldwin's birthday, and Alumnae Day, featuring "pilgrimages" of the old girls to the College.

(5) Through visits of the Executive Board or members of the College Faculty, and through giving every possible aid by correspondence, to organize groups into chapters.

(6) Through following up every avenue that would open—letters, newspaper notices, chance meetings, and the visits of old girls to the school—to interest them in the work of the Association and enlist their aid.

(7) To use every gathering of Mary Baldwin girls to enroll new members and get birthday dates. (You will notice we let no opportunity escape—witness Mrs. Black and her faithful cohorts who have already approached you, I feel sure.)

To summarize very briefly the results:
New members enrolled since May, 1926.. 281
Birthday cards mailed out and ready for mailing1000

Advance orders received for Mary Baldwin Directory	51
Corrected addresses and omitted names sent in response to Roster published in March NEWS LETTER (over a hundred of these were listed as "Lost").....	263
Letters received (and I wish there were time to read from these, but the next NEWS LETTERS will give you many extracts), approximately	350
Letters and various forms of enclosures mailed out, approximately.....	1200
Number of Executive Committee meetings held	3
New Chapters organized—Roanoke, Lynchburg, Lower Valley.....	3
Visits made by me to other cities—Roanoke, Waynesboro, Baltimore, Washington, Martinsburg	5
Luncheon on Mary Baldwin Day, Oct. 4th, present	120
(At this luncheon the "granddaughters" of Mary Baldwin were entertained.)

Graduates of 1927 entertained at tea at the home of your President.

Talk to student body, on May 11th, in an effort to interest them in work of the Association, and in becoming members before leaving school.

We have been able to accomplish these things because of splendid co-operation all along the line:

Dean Higgins has been our "contact" with the College and the Seminary, and has assisted us in many ways. She has "featured" us in both of her 1927 catalogues; Miss Price and the Editors of the Bluestocking have given us charming recognition; Miss Stuart and the Editors of Campus Comments have given us a column in their paper; the Executive Committee and the members of all Standing Committees have responded willingly to the many calls made upon them; and there has been an immense amount of work done by volunteers not members of Committees in the preparation of the Roster and in addressing envelopes and mailing out the NEWS LETTERS.

Although it has been spoken of in both NEWS LETTERS, I feel that here I once again must mention the splendid work of Miss Strauss, our Treasurer, and Mrs. Christian, the Mary Baldwin Campaign Secretary, in getting the Roster in form for publication, and of Mrs. Black in making up the birthday card index and in getting out the greetings.

To the Mary Baldwin College Board, however, we are most deeply indebted. At the end of three months' work October 1st, I reported to them on the expenditure of the $200.00, laying before them the facts and asking for no further appropriation. They voluntarily appropriated $1,000.00 for the continuance of the work.

And to Mr. King we are also deeply indebted. On May 14th he voluntarily gave us from M. B. College, $250.00 for our work, because he considers it a splendid medium for advertising purposes. This, we feel the finest evidence from a most remarkably successful business man of the results he believes we are achieving by the publication of our NEWS LETTER.

And because she has remained anonymous, appearing only as the editorial "we" in our NEWS LETTERS, I wish to say that here I consider we are most fortunate in having been able to secure Eugenia S. Bumgardner for this part-time secretarial work. She has had much previous experience in publicity, secretarial and organization work, and has been entirely responsible for the form and contents of the November and March NEWS LETTERS.

Much more, of course, could be accomplished were we able to afford a full-time secretary.

NOW WHY ALL THIS ACTIVITY ON THE PART OF THE ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION?

That the Mary Baldwin College Diploma may be RECOGNIZED as that of a Standard A-1 College, and our girls who go out into the social and the business world receive the recognition due their work and secure the high professional and business positions to which they are entitled.

We have emphasized already the necessity of the $500,000 endowment for Mary Baldwin College and the segregation of College and of Seminary, in order to comply with the requirements of a Standard A-1 College.

Regardless of any conditions over which we have no control, the Alumnae Association of Mary Baldwin voluntarily assumed, some years ago, the responsibility for $500,000 toward the building of the College, and this is our solemn obligation.

However, this is the condition we now face: We have only a scattered membership, among individuals, with no tie that binds except our mutual loyalty and love for Mary Baldwin. It is for this reason we must concentrate on informing our girls of the current happenings of the school; we must renew and build up all contacts; we must—somehow, some way—enroll 4,867 Mary Baldwin girls not yet members of the M. B. A. A.

Why? Because, until we do have their constant interest, as evidenced by membership in the Association, we have no chance to organize chapters, and without this medium of combined effort, we cannot serve our Alma Mater as other Alumnae Associations are doing.

Will not every girl here, go home, filled with zeal to find as many as ten girls, in or near her locality, and form an Alumnae Chapter? The Alumnae office stands ready and eager with advice, literature, and lists to aid you in every way possible.

It is only through the individual—each one of us—working unselfishly for our Alma Mater, that we will ever make our slogan a reality:

"EVERY MARY BALDWIN GIRL A
MEMBER OF THE MARY BALD-WIN ALUMNÆ ASSOCIATION."

—and thus will the Mary Baldwin Alumnæ Association become worthy of her whose name it bears.

Respectfully submitted,
MARGARET KABLE RUSSELL,
President, M. B. A. A.

At the conclusion of which Mrs. Emily Pancake-Smith made the following motion:

"Splendid as is this report, it does not give us any idea of the sacrificial work of our President. Having been an onlooker myself,
I feel I should tell the members of the Association how much time our President has given to this work, at least two mornings of each week. I move that we go on record, not only as accepting the report, but as expressing our deepest appreciation of the work of our President."

The motion was seconded by Mrs. Lizzie Hanger-Chalenor, and Mrs. Anne Hotchkiss-Howison moved the report be accepted with a rising vote of thanks, which was done.

A telegram from Mrs. Reba Andrews-Arnold, former President, was read: "Greetings and best wishes for 1927 Alumnæ meeting."

The treasurer's report was read and accepted.

Since all correspondence has been through the Alumnæ office, the work of the Corresponding Secretary for the year was to send out the invitations for October Fourth Luncheon and Alumnæ Dinner, also the notices for the Christmas Sale.

The report of Dean Marianna P. Higgins was read and accepted.

Madam President and Members of the Mary Baldwin Alumnæ Association:

A friend of mine who is a member of the Board of Trustees of a renowned College replied to my invitation to attend our Commencement by saying that he would be endur- ing discussions and reports at his own College at this time. I am not going to test your powers of endurance by giving a long report this morning, but I cannot allow this opportunity to pass without calling your attention to some of the existing conditions here at Mary Bal-win. To the resident Alumnæ much of it is an old story, but I am fortunate in having some new auditors present this morning.
These old girls who have not honored us by their presence for several years are not so familiar with the educational and social expansion which has taken place within recent years, an expansion which has caused your beloved and honored Mary Baldwin Seminary to be full to the brim and running over. It has been and continues to be a severe tax upon us to meet this strange condition of a new and vigorous college department in the arms of the old Seminary. The Seminary has stood the strain marvelously, but even so firm and strong a foundation as has been laid for us may not resist too much pressure from outside.

I will not tax your endurance with figures, but you will bear with me if I give just a few. In your courtesy, you are more apt to listen to me than to read the catalogue. The enrollment for the session of 1926-1927 is 354, boarders and day students. The number in each class is: Seniors 15, Juniors 22, Sophomores 20, Freshmen 43, and Specials 75, making a total of 175 in the College. There are 179 in the Seminary.

In 1924 one degree was conferred, 1925 five degrees, in 1926 ten, and there are fifteen candidates in 1927 with a reasonable assurance of at least twenty in 1928. The growth has been gradual but firm. The patron of each class devotes much time to the social and educational development of the class. In several instances the individual teachers do the work commonly performed by the Dean of the class in some institutions. The college girls assume more responsibility each year and automatically receive more liberty.

The outstanding changes in the curriculum for the session of 1926-1927 were:

(1) Strengthening the requirements for graduation from the special departments. This change will decrease the number of special graduates for awhile, but we hope it will result in turning out a finer type of graduates from those departments.

(2) Offering a college certificate for the completion of a three-year course in special subjects, such as: music, art, etc., so as to encourage high school graduates to continue to come to Mary Baldwin though they are not candidates for the A. B. degree. For economic reasons, we are compelled to maintain our special departments at this time.

(3) Allowing credit for music to candidates for the A. B. degree. If a student wishes to pursue the music course and at the same time receive the A. B. degree, we require 48 hours of literary work and 12 hours of music during the four years, the emphasis being laid on the theoretical studies in music. This has meant additional courses in Harmony and History of Music.

(4) Establishing a fixed schedule for classes and for examinations. We secured splendid results at the opening of school last fall from the fixed schedule. We opened school Thursday morning, ran through a schedule on Saturday, and regular classes met Monday morning.

(5) Abolished requests for students to leave before the close of school for the Christmas vacation and to remain at home after its close.

Physical Examinations and Mental Tests gave evidence of a well selected group of students this year. The average mentality was surprisingly high, and indicated a picked group.

LIBRARY

Since January 1, 1926, we have added four hundred volumes, including bound magazines, to the Library, making a total at this time of 8,240 volumes. We subscribe regularly for 42 magazines and newspapers.

PUBLICATIONS

The Miscellany, the College publication, shows splendid work, and some of the contributions have distinct literary merit. Campus Comments, a four-page paper which is issued semi-monthly, is of great interest to the students. The College Annual, known as The Bluestocking, is a valuable advertisement for the school, as the following notice will show:

"The Bluestocking, the Mary Baldwin College Annual, for the second time, has received recognition from the Central Interscholastic Press Association, which is maintained as extension work under the School of Journalism in the University of Wisconsin. A total of 489 yearbooks from the leading American Colleges and Universities was submitted. Of the total 100 books receiving the All-American ratings, The Bluestocking is in that class."

MARRIAGES AND PROFESSIONS

Mary Baldwin College continues to make a valuable contribution to the home life of America. We have a record of the names of 534 girls who have been married since 1916. By actual calculation you will find an average of 53 each year or one every week. Teaching, executive work, secretarial, hospital training, illustrating, literary work, and other forms of occupation engage the attention of others. It is gratifying to relate that every one of the ten girls who received the A. B. degree last May is now teaching in the State of Virginia or in distant states.

I have given just a few of many things we are doing here, but I want every member of the Alumnae Association to know that we are exalting the things of the intellect and of the spirit, and if we can by our small classes, strong faculty, and good organization stimulate our girls to prize the highest and strive faithfully for it, then we shall have done something as true counselors of the intellectual and spiritual life.

Reports from Chapters were read and accepted.

ATLANTA CHAPTER

Two meetings were held, one in December at the home of Mrs. J. T. Stephenson. The other in March at Miss Vernice Mayson's home, both of which were most enjoyable affairs in the nature of a tea. The Chairman, Mrs. Chalenor, attended the Mary Baldwin Birthday Luncheon in Staunton on October 4th, with Mrs. Roselle Mercier Montgomery as guest of honor. She was profoundly impressed with the organization and working spirit of the Staunton Chapter, and caught their enthusiasm hoping to arouse greater interest in the work of the Atlanta Chapter. Inclement weather and conflictive engagements prevented a large attendance at either meeting, nevertheless great interest was shown in the membership campaign, NEWS LETTER, Missionary Scholarship, College News, etc.

Hoping to interest out-of-town girls, it was decided to send out 200 invitations to a Mary Baldwin Luncheon to be held during Grand Opera Week, the last week in April. This was done, the states of Georgia, Florida, and Alabama being covered, but there were not sufficient acceptances to warrant the effort and expense. This was a keen disappointment to the Chapter, as all the members were enthusiastic and bent in putting over a very brilliant occasion.

Mrs. John King Ottley entertained at the Driving Club in honor of Mrs. Roselle Mercier Montgomery during her stay in Atlanta, when Oglethorpe University conferred upon her an honorary degree.

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH HANGER-CHALENOR,
Chairman Atlanta Chapter.

KNOXVILLE CHAPTER

The Knoxville Chapter holds its annual meeting Monday afternoon, May 11th, at my home, and while we did not have as large a number as we did last year at the meeting, every one seemed interested.

After visiting my garden and meeting my gardener (my husband) who presented each member with a bunch of forget-me-nots and pansies, we returned to the house and held a short business meeting before we had our social hour. Dues were collected, and it was decided we would hold another meeting in the fall on Miss Baldwin's birthday. The members voted that I should continue to act as Chairman and that Mrs. Henry Trent should act as Secretary.

In order to promote more interest and to enlarge our number I invited the daughters of two of the old girls who attended Baldwin in '74, and I was so glad to have my lovely picture of Miss Higgins to show some of the older girls who have not seen her.

Several of them spoke of having motored through Staunton, and having stopped at the Stonewall Jackson Hotel and having driven past the school.

Do you not think the Staunton Chapter should have placed in the lobby of the hotel some message of welcome to all former pupils of Baldwin's, inviting them to visit the school?

With best wishes for the success of the Alumnae for the coming year.

Respectfully submitted,
INA AST PAYNE,
Chairman Knoxville Chapter.

LYNCHBURG CHAPTER

The Lynchburg Chapter of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association was formed February 25, 1927.

Present: Mesdames Katherine R. Adkerson Wood, Alice Aunsphaugh Kyle, Emma Wellford Hobbie, Lilian Parks Pritchett, and the Misses Eugenia Aunsphaugh, Macon Pettyjohn, and Mildred Kinnier.

Officers were elected: President, Lilian Parks Pritchett; Vice-President, Alice Aunsphaugh Kyle; Treasurer, Katherine Adkerson Wood; Corresponding Secretary, Macon Pettyjohn Winfree; Recording Secretary, Emma Harris. The Constitution was adopted.

The next meeting was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Pritchett, on Monday, April 18th.

Present: Mesdames Katherine R. Adkerson Wood, Alice Aunsphaugh Kyle, Lilian Parks Pritchett, Therese de La Tour Herrick, Claude A. Thompson, Jessie Apperson Lee, Nell McClure Gilliam, Misses Mildred Kinnier, and Macon Pettijohn.

So far the meetings have been strictly social, but next fall we will settle down to the more serious business of trying to raise some money. But before that time we hope to have many more members enrolled in our chapter. All members now enrolled seem greatly interested.

Some of our members attended the school when it was the Augusta Female Seminary, and remember Miss Baldwin with love and veneration. Others are of a more recent date, but when together, all seem the same, just "old" Mary Baldwin girls, with the good of the school at heart.

LOWER VALLEY CHAPTER

Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell,
President of Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association,
Staunton, Va.

My dear Mrs. Russell:

This afternoon, according to plans, the second meeting of Mary Baldwin "girls" was held at Mrs. Snodgrass' home. I am happy to report to you the definite formation of a chapter to be known as "The Lower Valley Chapter." Officers: Mrs. M. A. Snodgrass, Chairman; Miss Frances Capper, Vice-Chairman; Miss Frances Burdette, Secretary and Treasurer. Thirteen members represented Martinsburg, Winchester, Charles Town, Shepherdstown.

The next meeting of the "Lower Valley Chapter" will be Wednesday, September 28th, at which time we will have a Mary Baldwin Alumnae Luncheon, and we hope to attract more members. Also, we are setting this date, that we may plan for a trip to Staunton on October 4th, if possible for any one to go.

Miss Elsie Rosenberger is the only one of the local chapter, who is going to commencement and we have appointed her to represent and report the new chapter. Mrs. Snodgrass wishes me to express her regret at her inability to come. She says that she expressed a strong doubt to you, but at the present time her brother-in-law is very ill and it would be impossible for her to leave town, even if she had so planned. I had hoped to come, but I think I told you, if we had a dry spring, I would surely be there, as you know, the rainfall has been almost unprecedented and another week will pass before my planting is completed. I hope that I will be able to come in the fall. It is unfortunate that the organization can not be more largely represented, but I feel that it is substantial and greater interest will follow, also that it will be augmented from time to time.

With best wishes for a fine commencement and for the return of many old girls, and regrets that we all can not be with you.

Sincerely,
FRANCES H. BURDETTE.

ROANOKE CHAPTER

On March 16, 1927, the Roanoke Chapter of Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association was organized. The following officers were elected: Miss Virginia Sneed, Chairman; Mrs. Mortimer Williams, Vice-Chairman; Miss Katherine Huff, Secretary, and Miss Elizabeth Nelson, Treasurer.

Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, President of the Association, met with us, and was, as she ever is, an inspiration.

We have on the roll over twenty members, and have had two meetings since we have been organized. Although we have not accomplished a great deal as yet, we are pleased to report that the interest in Roanoke is steadily increasing.

Respectfully submitted,
ELIZABETH LYNN.

STAUNTON AND AUGUSTA CHAPTER

The Staunton and Augusta County chapter of Mary Baldwin Alumnae met on October 4, 1926, for transaction of business and election of officers. This election resulted in the following being chosen to serve from October, 1926, till April, 1928:

Mrs. Charlotte Ranson Taylor, Chairman.
Mrs. Lucile Kilby Wayt, Vice-Chairman.
Miss Mary Lou Bell, Secretary.
Mrs. Ellen Pancake Brown, Corresponding Secretary.

Miss Eugenia Sproul, Treasurer.

Prior to this meeting, a handsome wreath had been placed on Miss Baldwin's grave by her cousin's, Mrs. A. F. Robertson and Mrs. H. J. Taylor. Her ninety-seventh birthday was thus fittingly remembered.

Our Staunton chapter participated later in the luncheon at Country Club Inn, where we were joint hostesses with the National Association in entertaining the daughters and granddaughters of old Mary Baldwin girls.

It was a pleasure during the Fall to show courtesy to the parents of Mary Baldwin girls and to renew old school friendships.

We brought Ruth Draper to the New Theatre on October 29th, and from her evening of delightful interpretations we realized $636.66.

Our Christmas sale was held on December 2nd, the Staunton chapter conducting the sale of fancy articles for the alumnae at large and, as is our custom, selling refreshments. We were very grateful to the United Daughters of the Confederacy for the contribution of a table of fancy articles, the proceeds of which went to the Staunton chapter. Altogether, $215.25 was realized by the Staunton chapter from this sale.

Our drive for new members in March was only fairly successful. We gained 43 new members with the promise of more. It behooves us to remember Dr. Fraser's injunction: "Everyone will be looking to the Staunton and Augusta County chapter for leadership," and so to bestir ourselves that the old girls, not now actively interested, may become so. Our present membership is most loyal in its support.

On April 7th our annual meeting was held with Mrs. Thos. Hogshead, with fifty present. Memorials to Mrs. Sue H. Sherer and to Miss Nora B. Fraser were read. A beautifully embossed poem on "The Death of Woodrow Wilson" by our talented Roselle Mercier Montgomery, was presented to Dr. Fraser to be hung in the Wilson room at the manse.

Miss Higgins extended a cordial greeting to the alumnae on behalf of Mary Baldwin and a survey of the progress of plans for Mary Baldwin was given by Dr. Fraser.

Lovely selections were rendered by Mary Baldwin vocal graduates. We wonder if they realize how much pleasure they give us by thus adding charm to our programs.

We have paid the $400 annual amount due on our $2,000 pledge and have $527.65 in bank.

Respectfully submitted,
CHARLOTTE RANSON TAYLOR,
Chairman.

WASHINGTON CHAPTER

The Washington Chapter of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association held two meetings during the year. Mrs. May Walton Kent was hostess for the October meeting, and Mrs. Natalie Hogshead Zirkle for the May meeting.

A part of each program was devoted to informing the members of the doings of the Alumnae, the Seminary, and the College as far as possible.

At the October meeting fancy articles were received for the Alumnae Christmas bazaar and arrangements were made for sending these articles to Mrs. Hunter.

The May meeting was the business meeting of the year. Dues were collected and the reports of the Bazaar Committee and the Missionary Scholarship Committee were read.

The Missionary Scholarship Committee showed a contribution of $47.00.

The adoption of a constitution and by-laws, based on the constitution and by-laws of the General Organization, where practicable, was an important part of the May program.

The advisability of having a benefit entertainment was considered and will be decided at the next meeting in October.

A serious effort has been made during the year to interest former students of Mary Baldwin now living in Washington in affiliation with the Washington Chapter. At both meetings plans have been discussed with this object in view. An attempt was made by the Chairman to form an evening chapter to take care of many "old girls" who are now employed in Washington and who could not attend the meetings of the afternoon chapter. Many letters have been written to secure new members with some success, six new names having been added to our roll. New officers were elected for the next year. Chairman, Miss Margaret W. Daniel; Vice-Chairman, Mrs. James Trimble; Secretary-Treasurer, Miss Ruth Duffey.

Respectfully submitted,

MARGARET W. DANIEL,

Chairman, Washington Chapter, Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association.

NEW YORK CHAPTER

Dear Alumnae:

A meeting of the New York chapter of the Association of Alumnae and Former Students of the Mary Baldwin Seminary and College was held at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, Friday, April 16, 1926, at 3:00 p. m.

It was decided that we would not pledge ourselves as a chapter for any definite sum for the College Campaign, as so many of the members had made personal pledges. The matter of a Field Secretary was discussed, but no action was taken.

It was decided to have a card party to raise money to meet our obligations in Staunton.

The New York chapter received a very cordial invitation from The Society of Virginia Women in New York to be present at a Jefferson celebration held Tuesday, April 13th at four o'clock, at the Hall of Fame, New York University. The New York Chairman of Mary Baldwin Alumnae had the pleasure of taking Miss Fanny Washington, the guest of honor of the celebration, to the Hall of Fame. On April 29, 1926, the members of the New York chapter were invited to a tea at the home of one of our members, Mrs. Clifford H. Tuttle, 275 Arch Road, Englewood, N. J. Mrs. Blake furnished a spacious Bus de Luxe to take all the members who could attend. After a most cordial welcome by Mrs. Tuttle, there was held a business meeting. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved. It was decided to send the usual $50.00 to the Missionary Scholarship Committee and the dues of the active members of the chapter to the Treasurer of the Alumnae Association. The date of the card party was set for Tuesday, May 18, 1926, at the Waldorf-Astoria. Mrs. Tuttle served a most attractive collation in her spacious solarium, tastefully decorated in spring flowers of yellow and white, after which our hostess took us over her grounds and presented each guest with flowers from her beds.

The card party, held on May 18th, at the Waldorf Astoria, was well attended. Some of the members, being unable to be present, sent checks for tables or tickets. Mrs. Kenneth Blake, Chairman of the New York chapter, was ably assisted by Mrs. Edgar Dawson, Chairman of Card Party.

A business meeting of the New York chapter was held at the Waldorf-Astoria April 15, 1927, at 12:00 o'clock. At this meeting Mrs. Blake, Chairman, read an interesting letter from Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, President of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association. In this letter Mrs. Russell emphasized a number of important questions connected with the work of the chapter, such as meetings and ways to interest the members and gain new ones.

Mrs. Blake tendered her resignation as Chairman of the New York chapter, as did also Miss Mary E. Elder, Secretary and Treasurer.

Mrs. H. D. Scudder, Jr., was nominated and elected Chairman of the New York chapter.

Miss Elder, our most efficient Secretary and Treasurer, agreed to continue in office after much persuasion.

The meeting adjourned, after which a reception was held for the members and their friends to meet Mrs. Lucille Foster McMillin, of Tennessee, our distinguished guest of honor at a beautifully appointed luncheon in the State Apartment. The table was lovely in yellow and white jonquils in profusion, Easter favors and place cards on which was written the maiden name of each of the Mary Baldwin girls present.

Mrs. Kate L. Jenkins, President of The Dixie Club, of New York, pronounced the blessing.

Mrs. Roselle Mercier Montgomery was called upon by Mrs. Blake to present Mrs. McMillin, which she did, much to the interest and amusement of the assembled guests. Other distinguished guests were Mrs. James Henry Parker, President New York Chapter of the United Daughters of Confederacy; Mrs. Ernest E. Malcolm (Carrie Whitlock, of Georgia), ex-President Dixie Club of New York; Mrs. Judge James A. Allen, another ex-President of Dixie Club of New York, and Meine Nina Tarasova.

Mrs. McMillin responded in her usual inspiring manner and gave us all some beautiful thoughts to take home with us.

We gained two new members from the enthusiasm of the luncheon, that of Mrs. Marie Ezelle Pruyn and Mrs. Ernest E. Malcolm.

All left with the feeling that the New York chapter had successfully carried on the past two years, and with high hopes for the future.

Respectfully submitted,

CELESTE WILDER BLAKE,

(MRS. KENNETH M. BLAKE)

Retiring Chairman New York Chapter.

Reports of the Chairman and of the Treasurer of the Missionary Scholarship Committee were accepted with thanks.

Report of Chairman

Madam President and Fellow Alumnae:

Your Missionary Scholarship Committee presents its seventh annual report with a spirit and satisfaction and a fuller consciousness of the value and worth whileness of this endeavor.

Katherine Allyn See, who has held this scholarship for the past two years and will take her degree at the College Commencement, May 25th, has shown quite a gift as a writer of poetry and prose, this year dramatizing a poem, "The Hempweaver," by Edna St. Vincent Millay. A copy of this play was sent to this gifted poetess, and most unexpectedly she acknowledged it with the encomium of "charming" and a gracious permission to use same. The prize offered by one of our bookshops for the best poem in The Bluestocking was also awarded her. Her reports for the three semesters of the two years in all subjects have consistently read—A (95-100) B (88-94). What more could we ask?

Most beautiful letters of thanks and appreciation have been received by the Committee from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gamble See, Home Missionaries in Floyd County, Va.; and so with hale and farewell we wish her God-speed as she starts out in her busy world of endeavor.

Your committee has pursued the policy of having under observation, when possible, some student attending Mary Baldwin for at least one term, and eligible for appointment. Thus the committee is able to select an outstanding student for this scholarship. After careful inquiry and due consideration, your committee unanimously selected Elizabeth Woods, a college freshman this past term. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Woods, missionaries to China. Her mother, Bessie Smith

Woods, her sister, Agnes Woods Harnsberger, and her aunt, Annie Woods Sampson, are all outstanding Mary Baldwin Alumnae.

Most appreciative letters were received from Dr. and Mrs. Woods, and Elizabeth.

Respectfully submitted,

ANNE HOTCHKISS-HOWISON,

Chairman Missionary Scholarship Committee.

Report of the Alumnae Scholarship Committee was accepted with thanks.

Alumnae Scholarship Committee

Madam President and Fellow Alumnae:

The Alumnae Scholarship Committee presents its annual report with a feeling of work well done, for the beneficiary for this and the previous college terms, Leola Brown, Churchville, Va., has been proven, by her class work and loyalty to the spirit and aims of her Alma Mater, worthy of this scholarship. After conference with the Dean and those members of the Faculty who were her instructors the past term, the Committee felt assured that in re-appointing Leola Brown for her Junior year, session 1927-1928, it would make no mistake. A lovely letter of thanks for the scholarship for the past session was received from Leola.

On notifying her of her re-appointment, it was most gratifying to hear her expressions of real surprise and hearty thanks. Fannie Strauss, Association Treasurer, holds the funds for this scholarship.

Respectfully submitted,

NANNIE L. TATE, Chairman.

Alumnae Scholarship Association.

Report of the Auditing Committee, covering the accounts of the Treasurer of the Association, of the Treasurer of the Missionary Scholarship Committee and of the Alumnae Scholarship Committee was read and accepted.

Report of the Constitution Committee was read, and certain changes in the tentative Constitution, as published in the 1926 Bulletin, were presented.

It was moved and seconded and unanimously resolved that the tentative Constitution and By-Laws, as published in the 1926 Bulletin, with the presented substitutions, be adopted as the Constitution and By-Laws of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association and that they be printed in full in the next MARY BALDWIN NEWS LETTER.

(This will be found printed after account of business meeting.)

The report of the Mary Baldwin Financial Campaign Secretary, Mrs. Ellen Howison-Christian, was then read and accepted with thanks.

Report of Alumnae Campaign

Although the Alumnae Campaign has ceased any active work for the present, it is by no means finally ended, and with less than one-fifth of the goal originally set attained at this time, we cannot possibly quit the job without further efforts to interest more of the old girls and secure their financial support. When we consider the fact that the $78,000 subscribed by the Alumnae up to this time represents gifts from only 331 girls, out of a roster of about 3,000, we feel that the attainment of the $500,000 goal is entirely possible, if we can just stir those 2,669 out of their indifference! The only way to do this is to build up an ever stronger and more vital Alumnae Association, and get all the old girls in it, then they will want to work for the Alumnae Fund, as a very splendid and necessary part of the work of the Association. So right now the best work we can all do for the Fund is to help build up the Alumnae Association—though the Campaign Committee will not in the least scorn cash subscriptions or pledges!

Nearly $1,500 has been added to the total amount of the Fund as reported at the last Alumnae meeting. Small—and not so small contributions keep trickling in, showing that the spring of loyalty to Mary Baldwin is still flowing, though there may be an apparent drought. Mr. Landes, the Treasurer, says that the pledges are being well paid, only about eight or ten out of the total number having failed to keep up their payments. This is a fine record for us girls, as the percentage of those who for various reasons are not able to keep up payments on campaign pledges is usually very much higher. The cash received by Mr. Landes is kept in a special fund, put out at interest to increase the amount.

Will you not all go back home and tell the other girls, when they ask what has become of the Alumnae campaign, "It is still very much alive and kicking, and we are going to put it over the top yet; the first thing you can do to help is join the Alumnae Association."

ELLEN H. CHRISTIAN.

At the conclusion of this Mrs. Emily Pancake-Smith offered, as a suggestion, but not as a motion, that since the Staunton Chapter was the only chapter that had made a contribution to the College Fund that all other chapters take this matter under consideration and, if possible, undertake definite work toward a contribution to the College Fund.

A memorial to Miss Ella C. Weimar, former Principal of Mary Baldwin Seminary, was read by Dean Marianna P. Higgins, and a memorial to Nora Blanding Fraser, former teacher of history, Mary Baldwin Seminary, by Mrs. Ellen Pancake-Brown.

MISS ELLA CLAIRE WEIMAR

Miss Ella Claire Weimar was born in Fauquier County, Virginia. At an early age she lost her parents and she and her sister were carefully reared by their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Padgett, at their home, "Green View," in Fauquier County, Virginia. Thus her early life was spent in the country, and she ever retained her love for nature and all of its beauties.

Miss Weimar's first school days were spent in a private school in Warrenton, Virginia. This school was taught by a lady from Connecticut who was evidently a very unusual woman and one who offered advantages of scholarship and culture to the young girls of that community not usually available in our Southern towns at that date. Later Miss Weimar studied at Mt. Washington, a school near Baltimore, Maryland.

Her early teaching was in Winchester, Virginia, and there the three Graham brothers, who became distinguished Presbyterian ministers, were among her students. Miss Weimar permitted no opportunity for the acquisition of knowledge to pass her by, and while teaching in Winchester, she studied Latin, Greek, and Mathematics under Dr. Nelson, who later became Professor of Mathematics at the University of Virginia. From Winchester she came to Augusta Female Seminary, now Mary Baldwin College, and here she taught History and English and at the same time pursued some courses of study. From 1883 to 1888 we find Miss Weimar in Tuscaloosa, Alabama, teaching History and assisting in executive work. From Tuscaloosa she was called to the University of Arkansas, and from there in 1889 she was invited back to Augusta Female Seminary to assist Miss Mary Julia Baldwin, the Principal, whose health was not good at that time. Mr. Waddell, in the History of Mary Baldwin Seminary, says: "In 1889 Miss Baldwin, finding the need of an Assistant Principal, obtained the services of Miss Ella C. Weimar, who continued to perform the duties of the office most efficiently during Miss Baldwin's life." These were trying years for the school, but Miss Weimar was always energetic and fearless in the discharge of her duty.

After Miss Baldwin's death, Miss Weimar was elected Principal pro tem. At a meeting of the Board of Trustees held January 25, 1898, the Chairman spoke in terms of high praise of the administration of Miss Weimar and Mr. King. At a meeting of the Board July 1, 1898, Miss Weimar was nominated for the office of principal and the roll being called was unanimously elected to select teachers and to have general control of the school, and Mr. King was elected Business Manager. Following Mr. Waddell's history to 1905, at which date these annals close, we find constant reference to Miss Weimar's successful management, but there are things in the life of a Principal of a boarding school which no historian can recount. Here were long, weary days of hard work, continued activity, both mental and physical, and sleepless nights of anxiety, the constant reconciling of opposing elements, and the ever-pressing and earnest desire for the advancement of each individual student, and for the honored position of the school at large. Miss Weimar was most considerate of her teachers, and was ever ready to assist them, and would often at great sacrifice to her own personal comfort find ways to promote their interests. She continued in the office of Principal of Mary Baldwin Seminary until she resigned in January, 1916. Miss Marianna P. Higgins was elected by the Board of Trustees May 1, 1916, to succeed her.

Following her position as assistant Principal from 1889 to 1897, Miss Weimar's administration as Principal of Mary Baldwin Seminary continued from 1898 to 1916. The plant was enlarged, and many buildings erected during this period. The course of study was broadened and the organization strengthened. Just before she retired the Seminary was recognized by the Virginia State Board of Education as a Junior College. Her deep devotion to the Seminary and to its success, her unfaltering loyalty to it, her ambition for the advancement of the school, her strict adherence to duty, her grim determination to abolish evil if it existed and to substitute good, her sincere scholarship, her ability as a leader, all combined to make her administration result in a marked development of the Seminary. Miss Weimar's interest in the old girls and her pride in their success and achievements and her distress at any failure of theirs continued to the end of her life. She was frequently heard to say, "There is something different about the Mary Baldwin girls." After Miss Weimar retired, she returned to her own home, "Green View," near Warrenton, Virginia, and there she lived quietly until the end came December 28, 1926. She was the earnest student as well as teacher to the end. Some one who was close to her during her last years says, "I have known no one of her age so free from narrowness, so eager to grasp new ideas when beneficial and to apply them. She was keenly interested in public affairs with a progressive outlook on the rapidly changing history of the nations." She was particularly fond of History and Biography. Woodrow Wilson had no more earnest follower and admirer than Miss Weimar. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church at Warrenton, Virginia, and she was always most conscientious in the discharge of all church duties.

When a complete History of Mary Baldwin Seminary is compiled, Miss Weimar's name will hold an honored place on the roll of those who have contributed so largely to the rich heritage of Mary Baldwin College.

NORA BLANDING FRASER 1882-1927

Nora Blanding Fraser, eldest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. A. M. Fraser, was born near Lexington, Kentucky, April 21, 1882. When she was eleven years old her family moved to Staunton, where her father has been, since that time, the beloved pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, and is now President of Mary Baldwin College.

Three days after arriving in Staunton on March 13, 1893, Nora entered Augusta Female Seminary (now Mary Baldwin College) and remained there as a student until her graduation, in May, 1901. This was the fulfillment of a cherished dream of her parents, as they had remarked before they even thought of moving to Staunton, that they would rather have their daughter educated in this school than in any other of which they knew.

After graduating, Nora spent another year here, specializing in Latin, and then taught for three years at the Chatham Episcopal Institute.

She entered Cornell University in 1905, where in two years she received the A. B. degree, remaining one year longer for graduate work. It was here that she became a member of the Phi Beta Kappa Fraternity.

In September, 1908, she accepted a position at Sweet Briar College, where she was, in reality, the head of the Latin Department for nine years. Then came a period of ill health which interrupted her work for almost two years.

When the Chair of History at Mary Baldwin Seminary was left vacant, in April, 1919, by the resignation of Miss Martha Riddle, she was elected to fill this position and continued to teach history here for more than six years—until within three weeks of her death on January 4, 1927.

She was splendidly equipped as a teacher, and put her whole energy and strength into her profession. Being exceedingly conscientious, she was fair and impartial, and her pupils were always sure of her sympathy and encouragement, when they had made an honest effort. She was devoted to her home, her friends, and her church, but her best efforts were given to Mary Baldwin, to which she was devotedly loyal.

She was a beautiful Christian character. Though frail in body she was strong in soul. Those who knew her best, loved and admired her most, for there was a quiet reserve and gentle dignity in her bearing, beyond which it was necessary to penetrate in order to realize fully the pure gold of her life.

There are problems and testings in all of our lives. Hers was no exception, but she "carried on" valiantly, and her bright smile lingers with us as a very happy memory.

—ELLEN P. BROWN, '94.

With the members standing, the Roster of members of the Association who died during the past year was then read: Ella C. Weimar, Nora Blanding Fraser, Minnie Bickle, Annie Childs-Fishburne, Dora Mason Harris, Mary Elizabeth Paris, Gertrude Van Lear, Josephine English-Eyster, Sue Hamilton-Scherer, Musette Newton-Ketchum, and Kate White-Hope.

The President then reported, as unfinished business from previous meetings, a resolution passed on May 23, 1924, as follows:

That the Association employ the services of a Field Secretary to organize chapters and arouse enthusiasm.

(This recommendation was adopted and referred to a committee consisting of the Executive Committee of the Association and the officers of the Staunton Chapter; this committee to decide upon the financing and securing a Field Secretary. During the open discussion of the above recommendation it was moved and seconded that $250.00, money invested as the basis of an Endowment Fund now in the hands of the Association Treasurer be used in financing a Field Secretary and the Board of Trustees of the Mary Baldwin College be approached for an additional $500.00. If necessary another $250.00 to be taken from current expenses of Association, all this in the form of a loan.)

She stated that, at a meeting of the Executive Committee, held April 4, 1927, "It was decided to ask permission of the Association, at the May meeting, to use the appropriation of $250.00 made, as above, for a Field Secretary, as a payment on the Association pledge to Mary Baldwin College."

In the discussion which followed it was brought out that the original $250.00 had come from life memberships in the Association. Upon motion, duly made and seconded, it was resolved that this $250.00 be used toward the payment of the Association's pledge to Mary Baldwin College.

Upon motion of Mrs. Cassell, duly seconded, it was resolved that a letter be sent to Miss Nannie L. Tate, the oldest Alumna of Mary Baldwin, expressing the deep regret felt at her absence from the meeting.

The out-of-town Alumnae were then presented to the meeting, each rising and giving her name and address.

Announcements were then made of the Pageant to be given at 3:30 by the girls of the Seminary and College on the Campus, and of the Alumnae Dinner at 7:00 in the College Dining Hall, to which all Alumnae were invited and were urged to attend.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned.

Miss Charlotte Kemper, former teacher at the Augusta Female Seminary, and for a number of years a missionary to Brazil, died May 15, 1927. A memorial written by Mrs. Nellie Hotchkiss Holmes is here printed:

MISS CHARLOTTE KEMPER

Miss Charlotte Kemper was born on August 21, 1837, at Warrenton, Virginia, "a hub," so she said, of a beautiful region. The only daughter, she was the companion of three brothers. When nine years old her father moved to the University of Virginia to be Proctor and Patron when the students paid their fees and matriculated. So the happy child lived on East Range with its shaded walks and serpentine halls, being a pet of Dr. McGuffey's, and her teacher, Rev. William S. White, said in later years, "I laid the foundation of her wits."

From thirteen to sixteen Miss Kemper attended boarding school in Richmond, Va., being taught by Moses Drury Hoge, Latin, French, history, literature, also music and drawing. In later years higher mathematics, Spanish, Greek, and Hebrew were acquired.

The next home was in Gordonsville, Va., where Mr. Kemper established a boarding school for boys, with only University of Virginia men as teachers.

The next home was in Alexandria, Va., where Mr. Kemper bought the Benjamin Holloway School, and only resigned it when the war of 1861 fell upon a peaceful and prosperous state. The three sons enlisted. Mr. Kemper was Assistant Quartermaster at the first battle of Manassas, then the house was confiscated and the mother and daughter became refugees. In the spring of 1865 the war ended and Mr. Kemper gave his Charlotte as her inheritance, a dollar and a half, all he possessed, and a writing-desk which he had made, while Delaware and Kosciusko Kemper established a boys' high school in Alexandria. Miss Kemper then taught for two years at Redlands, near Charlottesville, the residence of Mr. Carter her entrance on her future career. Next she was the chosen guest of the gracious Mrs. Thomas Peck at Hampden-Sidney, where she had a class of small children, one of whom was "sweet Nellie Peck," now Mrs. Alexander Sprunt, of Charleston, S. C.

In 1871 Miss Kemper came to the Augusta Female Seminary, now the Mary Baldwin Seminary and College. She was small and slight, and she had a dry, droll wit, with a slow smile that added zest and flavor. She wore black, gray, or white, was a skilled housemistress, sewed, crocheted, knitted, sang and played piano and organ.

The girls of 1871-1875 felt they were very close to Miss Kemper, knowing she trusted, loved, and enjoyed them. Among them was an inner circle of brilliant Mattie Beggs, auburn-haired Mary Baldwin Crawford, merry Genie Gunn, and Nellie Hotchkiss, but best loved of all was pretty, clever Betty Webb (now Mrs. John Sharp Williams), and Miss Kemper never denied that statement! This one of the girls has vivid memories of Latin Hymns, Dr. Brown's "Spare Hours," loaned, read, and discussed at recess or after schools, and letters exchanged during vacation. The last one said: "I often think of you and always lovingly. No teacher ever had a more satisfactory, a more heart-satisfying pupil than you were, and I have you and dear lamented Mary Crawford associated in my mind."

The girls used to say Miss Kemper had two faults! The one was that she poured forth charming facts but never said, "Make a note of this," and when examinations came and she called for one or more of them, even the cleverest girl did not always have the answer. The other fault was that her favorite bedtime was two a. m., and even Miss Baldwin's earnest appeals could not move her until the physician added his stern protest.

And then the miracle happened and Miss Kemper's prayers were answered and she was accepted as a missionary to Brazil in 1882. Miss Baldwin provided the outfit and funds and every comfort love could suggest, and Miss Kemper sailed from Norfolk, Va., on the long voyage of fifty-nine days, the ship bringing coffee from Brazil and returning with flour from Virginia, which did not spoil on the voyage.

At Campinas Miss Kemper joined Dr. and Mrs. Lane, and she began to study Portuguese. In 1892 she almost lost her life in the yellow fever epidemic, and Dr. Lane closed his heavenly-minded career. Shortly the schools were moved to Lavras, a fine climate, and there Miss Kemper did her greatest work. She taught girls and boys mathematics, theology, the Bible, and prepared the Sunday school lessons for O Pulpito, issued at Campinas. She was called Sabia, or Savante, the "learned woman." Her pupils are most of them Christian men and women, home-makers, teachers, preachers, one even going as a missionary to Lisbon, Portugal, but all are living monuments to her teaching and prayers. Her last message to the M. B. S. girls ran: "My life in Brazil has been singularly happy and my work has been in all the years soul-satisfying."

Miss Kemper took her furloughs, one of only three months' duration, and brought her return ticket to be sure of no delay.

Her last visit was in 1924-1925; then she came to the First Presbyterian Church of Charleston, S. C., which had chosen her for their very own missionary in 1902. There she attended the Birthday Party of the Woman's Auxiliary, taking part in the Pageant, receiving personally the offering for the Charlotte Kemper School, which is now finished and which she inspected in February, 1927. After that she slowly lost strength, and on May 15, 1927, she fell on sleep, at sunset on a beautiful Sabbath day. She has been a motherly "Aunt Lottie" to all the station, ministering to body, mind, and soul. Tender hands bore her to the study, a strange youthfulness came to her in the blessed rest.

"The bells have tolled for thee
Lying dead beyond the sea;
Lying dead among thy books,
The peace of God in all thy looks."

As did her friend, Miss Baldwin, so Miss Kemper said, "I always praye," and now, after almost ninety years of Christ-like life, Miss Kemper has left this legacy: "Thy statutes have been my songs in the house of my pilgrimage."

CLASS DAY EXERCISES AND PAGEANT

(From the Staunton News-Leader)

The 1927 class day exercises and pageant of the Mary Baldwin which were given on the school campus, were among the most picturesque and interesting in the history of the school.

The pageant was written and directed by Miss Eunice Cox, head of the dramatic department. The dances were arranged and directed by Miss Mary Louise Robertson, head of the physical education department.

Those at the piano were Misses Carolyn Gochenour, Kathleen Sultan, and Helen Morrison, whose excellent work served as a background for the artists taking part.

The entrance of graduates and their attendants was a beautiful picture. The college graduates wore rainbow shades and carried old-fashioned nose-gays. The seminary seniors were dressed in white, and carried white and yellow parasols. The graduates in music and dramatic art wore grey georgette with rose colored hats, and carried American Beauty roses.

The college preparatory seniors' welcome was given by Miss Virginia Kirk Wood. The seminary seniors' giftorian was Miss Eleanor Blanche Adams. Farewell to Mary Baldwin Seminary was delivered by Miss Anna Gabriel Young. The class history was presented by Miss Elsie Gray Hume; the class poem by Miss Margaret Walker Bowen; the class prophecy by Miss Dorothy Curry; presentation of mantle by Miss Marguerite Walker Dunton.

These ceremonies were closed with the singing of "Auld Lang Syne."

The colorful and spectacular pageant followed.

"ON AND ON"

FOREWORD—

It is to Everywoman we turn our attention in this Pageant, for it is through her smiles and tears, her courage and endeavor, her answer to the irresistible call within her to work toward things higher, that many phases of our modern civilization have been developed.

Oft times her aspirations have been discouraged, her plans have been dissolved, but always voices called to her heart to serve to her utmost. From the earliest ages, Everywoman has striven to satisfy the insatiable urge within her to give all of which she is capable.

To the work she has done in the past; to the achievement she is making at the present; and to the heights she will attain in the future, we dedicate this Pageant.

We should like to have had all the girls see this Pageant, which was the afternoon feature of Alumnæ Day. It was worthy of any of the large colleges.

Participated in by over three hundred students, from both the Seminary and College, it was most interesting in motif, as well as an inspiring conception of the gradual emancipation of womankind to her present state of freedom in the world of education, politics, and the whole realm of modern activities. The entire production was executed with the greatest ability, while no detail of costume or setting was overlooked.

ALUMNÆ DINNER

One of the most brilliant and delightful affairs of the season was the Mary Baldwin Alumnæ dinner given at the College on Alumnæ Day, May 23rd. The reception rooms and dining hall were elaborately decorated, and the vari-colored gowns worn by the guests blended beautifully with the flowers.

The graduating class of the College were guests of honor, and each carried an old-time nosegay.

At the appointed hour Mrs. Thomas R. Russell, President of the Alumnæ Association, and Miss Marianna P. Higgins, Dean of the College, led the guests to the dining hall where a bountiful repast was served. Each guest found a tiny nosegay of yellow and white, the College colors, at her place at the table.

In the center of the hall were the tables for the speakers and guests of honor, where Mrs. Russell presided charmingly. Around the room in the shape of a horseshoe were the other tables facing the center.

After dinner, Mrs. Russell, who introduced the speakers, first presented Miss Higgins, who extended cordial greetings to those present. She was followed by Mr. W. W. King, who for nearly thirty-seven years has been connected with the institution. Mr. King was very happy in his remarks, in which he again expressed his great love for the school and for all who have ever been connected with it and his willingness to serve in any way possible as long as there is "breath in my body."

Mrs. Russell expressed regret that Miss Margaret Woodrow Wilson could not be present at the dinner, but stated that the Executive Committee of the Association was sending flowers to greet her upon her arrival in the city.

Miss Elsie Rosenberger, of Winchester; Mrs. Lilian Parks Pritchett, of Lynchburg; Mrs. Fan Lee Williams, of Roanoke; Miss Margaret Daniel, of Washington, Mrs. Evelyn Chase McPherson, of Waynesboro; Miss Hazel Rumpf, of New York; Mrs. Laura Wise Dechert, of Harrisonburg, Mrs. Charlotte Ranson Taylor, of Staunton, and Mrs. Anne Hotchkiss Howison, an "old A. F. S. girl," all spoke a few words as representatives of Alumnæ chapters throughout the country.

Mrs. Willie Walker Caldwell, of Roanoke, distinguished in civic and social life, charmingly told of the honor system as it was practiced in the seventies when she was a student at "dear old A. F. S." She is both the daughter and the mother of a Baldwin girl.

"The Skit," written and produced by Miss Margaret Tynes, brought forth peals of laughter and tremendous applause as students of the old days paraded before the guests in the costumes of long ago.

Then Miss Eleanor Blanche Adams, of West Virginia, a graduate in expression, beautifully read "Rosalind," by Sir James Barrie.

At the conclusion the guests of honor led the others in singing one verse of "White and Yellow," which brought to a happy close the most eventful day in the history of the Alumnæ Association.

Of the more than 100 guests present were "old girls" from Alabama, North Carolina, West Virginia, Maryland, Texas, New York, Minnesota, Pennsylvania, Georgia, Ohio, District of Columbia, University of Virginia, and sixteen other cities and towns in Virginia.

Perhaps one of the happiest guests present was Mrs. Sugg, of Wilson, N. C., who had not visited Mary Baldwin since she was graduated forty-seven years ago as Miss Woodward. She proudly showed two medals she had received, one from Professor Hamer and one from Mrs. Crawford, which she prizes more highly than any of her earthly possessions.

Among other out-of-town Alumnae were:

Mary Alexander, Augusta, Ga.; Elizabeth La Rowe, University of Virginia; Ruth Mowery, Toledo, Ohio; Mrs. May Crowle Bowling, Charles Town, W. Va.; Mrs. Ella Paris Heard, Elkton, Va.; Evelyn Carhart, Philadelphia; Mrs. Claude Thompson, Lynchburg, Va.; Alice Buchanan, Charlotte, N. C.; Emily Ramsey, Front Royal, Va.; Helenora Withers, Charlotte, N. C.; Edwyne Hereford, Charlotte, N. C.; Sallie Schenck, Charlotte, N. C.; Mrs. John Fulmore Edmundson, Wilson, N. C.; Bessie Conrad, Winchester, Va.; Mrs. Catherine Loomis Wayman, Strasburg, Va.; Mrs. Sarah Caldwell Butler, Roanoke; Mrs. Rachel Speck Cooksey, Roanoke; Elizabeth Lynn, Roanoke; Frances Saunders, Roanoke; Mrs. Jeannie Grey Bryan, New York; Mrs. Evelyn McCue Baker, Minneapolis; Catherine Watson, Hot Springs, Va.; Katherine Adkerson Wood, Lynchburg; Jessie Apperson Lee, Lynchburg; Mary Ellen Davis, Cecilton, Md.; Mary Hamilton Williams, Bridgetown, Va.

The Staunton Chapter was represented by about eighty or more members.

THE CHRISTMAS SALE

We are planning to hold the Christmas Sale again early in December, the exact date to be determined later, and all "old" girls are asked to contribute one or more articles for this sale. As you know, the proceeds from this go to pay the Alumnae pledge to the College Fund.

OCTOBER FOURTH—MISS BALDWIN'S BIRTHDAY

The Alumnae Association is planning to make this celebration an annual event. Let each chapter have something "special" for this date—or better still—"old" girls and chapter girls be with us in Staunton for the October Fourth Luncheon.

MARCH NEWS LETTER

Please keep your copies. All have been distributed, and we have no more. Of course, if we get enough advance orders to justify us, we will publish the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Directory as described in above mentioned NEWS LETTER. If you have not yet sent in your order for a copy, do so at once, using enclosed slip. We take this opportunity to thank all who have sent information and corrected addresses.

The response in membership from the March NEWS LETTER was encouraging—seventy-nine new members. If you are not a member of our Alumnae Association, please sign the enclosed membership slip and send it, with one dollar (the annual membership dues) to the National Treasurer. Again we urge—

"EVERY MARY BALDWIN GIRL A MEMBER OF THE MARY BALDWIN ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION."

Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell, president of Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association, stopped over here yesterday en route from Baltimore, Md., as the guest of Mrs. M. A. Snodgrass. Mrs. Snodgrass, with the assistance of Miss Frances Burdette, had arranged a very delightful informal tea, to greet Mrs. Russell, with Mary Baldwin alumnae as guests. Mrs. Russell, who is the wife of Col. Russell, president of Staunton Military Academy, made a very charming impression and presented her plans, which are not of a financial nature at all, to create renewed interest in the school among the widely scattered alumnae and to arouse their loyalty.—(From the Martinsburg, W. Va., Paper.)

VIRGINIA WYNNE SLAYDEN, Holly Springs, Mississippi, writes: "Since January 20th, I have tried to write a line in regard to my birthday remembrance. I can't remember any expensive gift I have ever appreciated as much as the beautiful little thought I received from Mary Baldwin on that day. It certainly brings you back to years past, and what a wonderful feeling to know I am still remembered in the Mountains of Virginia."

LELIA F. BAUKNIGHT, 2027 Oak Street, Jacksonville, Fla., writes: "I believe if all the uninterested could take one long look at the ALUMNÆ NEWS it would bring back old times and give them a real thrill. I can hardly wait for mine to come."

RIZPAH F. DUDLEY, Alabama College, Montevallo, Ala., writes: "I have been here for the past three years, since my degree at the University of Virginia, as general supervisor of Alabama College Training School and secondary instructor in the College."

ELIZABETH WARNER TUCKER, 17 Stephenson Apt., Cor. Greenbrier and Virginia Sts., Charleston, W. Va., writes that she has been married fifteen months and at the present time is trying to hold down a husband and a job too! She is doing Religious Education work in the Ruffner Memorial Presbyterian Church.

ELIZABETH COX DOUGLAS, Box 632 Lancaster, Cal., writes: "Though the years roll on and on and one does get careless about writing letters, addresses are lost, and gradually one by one old friends are lost too—that old, warm, royal feeling just overflows, whenever mail comes to me from Staunton and I declare that I am going to write to every M. B. S. girl I ever knew. How I would love to be there once more and show dear Mr. King that my hair is still of the reddish hue, and to have a good long look at Miss Higgins, just a peep at her would be wonderful. To be sure, there would be sadness too—Miss Garrett, Miss "Martha," Miss Strickler, and now Miss Weimar—weren't they all wonderful?" Also says: "Surely wish we California M. B. S. girls could get together and form a chapter. I tried so hard several years ago to trace a few of them but failed, utterly—maybe there is some one of them now, though, who could take it up—and I would surely do all I could to help—although I am away from Los Angeles now, just starting out on a chicken ranch, and will be unable to leave it very often."

Mary Hamilton Williams reported at Alumnae meeting that through the efforts of Margaret Ward, interest in the Association was being aroused among "old" Baldwin girls on the Eastern Shore of Virginia?

Callie Grieve Brown, of Atlanta, Ga., has recently donated $50.00 to the Treasurer of the Missionary Scholarship Fund? This shows that the interest in the Missionary Scholarship is not only being maintained but is growing, and it is with great appreciation that we acknowledge this gift.

Mrs. Montgomery Resumes Writing

"If Charon so wills it that the immortal Horace may some day journey over the Styx to wander among the mortals we are sure he would first visit the land known as Riverside, Conn., to salute his true disciple, Roselle Mercier Montgomery, whom he has watched, tongue in cheek, translate Book 1 Ode XVIII of 2,000 years ago into "Horace On Prohibition and Temperance" of 1926, sold to a comic weekly—Judge—as literal a translation as her poems published by the leading poetry magazines." So reads an article in a recent edition of the Bridgeport-Waterbury (Conn.) Herald.

The story is an interview with Mrs. John S. Montgomery, poetess and writer, better known as Roselle Mercier Montgomery, who had frequently visited the city as a guest of Mrs. M. A. Snodgrass, a former classmate at Mary Baldwin Seminary, Staunton, Va. Mrs. Montgomery has also read her poems before the Travel Club on her visits, and has a number of friends and acquaintances in the city.

As a girl, Roselle Mercier was a voluntary contributor to magazines and newspapers, especially the magazine section of the New York Times under the name of Glen Allan. Like most attractive young girls of that time, her career was cut short by marriage—to Seymour Montgomery, of New York City. Mrs. Montgomery stopped writing for fifteen years and occupied herself with husband and children. At Riverside, their summer home, Mrs. Montgomery composed some of her best poems. "I really think I started to write verse because I learned how to cook. It kept me away from bridge and teas," she said. The result of her isolation from society has been satisfactory not only to herself, but to the field of poetry. She is now working on another volume which may be called "The Eternal Modern," also translations from Horace. The feature articles under the pen name of Glen Allan she intends to continue this winter.

Mrs. Montgomery's favorite poets are, first of all, Horace, then Virgil, Homer, Shakespeare, Keats, Shelley, and of the moderns, Frost and Noyes. Negro poems are also her special forte. She is of the old aristocracy of the South—French Huguenot and Scotch descent.

The following are some of the illustrious societies and clubs to which she belongs: Chairman of the Literary and Poetry Society, New York League of American Pen Women, City Federation of Women's Clubs, Authors League of America, Poetry Society of America, Poetry Society of England, New York Classical Club, Pen and Brush, Lyceum, honorary member of the Woman's Club of Augusta, Lyceum, London.—(From Martinsburg, W. Va., Paper.)

Virginia Marchant, 1818 Bolton St., Baltimore, is anxious to get enough names and memberships to establish an Alumnae Chapter in Baltimore? Will all Baltimore girls cooperate by either seeing her or calling on the phone—and help the good cause along?

The editors of the 1927 Bluestocking gave to the alumnae several pages devoted to sketches of "old girls" and that this was beautifully done under the caption, "Dreamers of Yore"?

A copy of the Bluestocking was presented to the President of the Alumnae Association, and accepted with appreciation on behalf of all the "old girls," for which that office stands. We are glad to be associated in every possible way with the Baldwin girl of today!

Frances Warfield wrote an article, "Sweet Girl Graduate," which appeared in Scribner's June number?

Miss Nannie Tate, who is our first graduate and alumnae (class 1866) still lives in Staunton, R. F. D. 1, at her old home? She expresses her warm interest in all "old" girls, so many of whom she taught when head of the Primary Department, and all of whom affectionately know her as "Miss Nannie." She did not feel well enough to attend the Alumnae meeting, but a loving greeting was sent to her by all "old" girls present. Don't YOU want to write Miss Nannie?

Mary Baldwin News Letter

Published by the Alumnae Association of Mary Baldwin College

Vol. 2

STAUNTON, VIRGINIA, NOVEMBER, 1927

No. 4

The Purpose of the Mary Baldwin News Letter is to inform all Mary Baldwin girls of what the College, the Alumnae Association, and its members are doing

MISS BALDWIN'S BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

A group of more than 100 enthusiastic "old girls" of the Augusta Female Institute, Mary Baldwin Seminary and Mary Baldwin College gathered at the annual luncheon, Oct. 4th, to pay homage, on the anniversary of her birth, to the woman whose memory is undimmed by the passage of 98 years, whose sterling character and Christian ideals have outlived the forgetfulness which often follows life's changes and vicitudes.

Mrs. Anne Hotchkiss Howison, Chaplain of the Association, pronounced the blessing. Following the luncheon a greeting was given by the President, Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell to all those present, and telegrams and messages from absent members were read.

The keynote of Mrs. Russell's speech was the famous saying by Lafayette, which thrilled all Americans a few years ago, "Lafayette, we are here." She aptly applied the quotation to the present duty of the Alumnae toward Mary Baldwin College, pointing out that they are as greatly needed by their Alma Mater, as was Lafayette, and that they should respond in the same courageous manner.

Miss Higgins, Dean of Mary Baldwin College, gave a short greeting to the Alumnae. In part, she said: "Your Alma Mater needs you particularly during these trying days of change. She needs your patience with mistakes, she needs your sympathetic understanding of difficulties, she needs your constructive criticism, and most of all she needs your friendliness and affection."

Mrs. Charlotte Ranson Taylor welcomed the guests on behalf of the hostess chapter, that of Staunton and Augusta County, of which she is chairman.

Mrs. A. M. Howison, as representative of a committee of three, reported the placing of a wreath on Miss Baldwin's grave, recounting at the same time an interesting incident in connection with Miss Baldwin's relation to James Barclay, of Monticello, and reading a tribute from an old servant, who considered it an honor and distinction that her mother had served in Miss Baldwin's family.

A charming toast to the first Alumna, Miss Nannie

Lewis Tate, written by her old pupil, Mrs. Nellie Hotchkiss Holmes, was read by Mrs. Sarah Bell Wysor, who in so doing represented the many girls who have come under Miss Tate's influence, and who are now living in all parts of the world. Mrs. Wysor is from Panama.

The principal speakers of the occasion were Mrs. Eva Bowe Stern, of Richmond, and Mrs. Amelia Pearson Cooper, of Lebanon, Ky. Mrs. Stern took for her subject: "Mary Baldwin, the Builder." Her talk was reminiscent and human, giving interesting pictures of her life at Mary Baldwin. "The Motto of Miss Baldwin's life was 'According to the grace of God which was given unto me. I have laid the foundation and another buildeth thereon.' Miss Baldwin did not preach, she lived. She did not demand respect, she commanded it. She taught fairness, honesty, idealism." The speaker stressed the fact that Miss Baldwin was a builder of character, that the girls who had the privilege of her instruction and supervision were those who, when beset by the disillusionments and disappointments of life, would carry on. In conclusion, she paid a fitting tribute to such a noble character by saying "She had built better than we knew, and no one knows what shall be achieved."

Mrs. Amelia Pearson Cooper, who is president of Synodical work in Kentucky, followed with a stirring command for the Alumnae to "Go forward."

In part she said: "We are here to plan how we can help this great institution do for others what it did for us. Holding dear the past let us seize the opportunity the present offers, and build so that future generations will in turn rise and call us blessed.

"No section of this country has preserved the traditions of our fore-fathers as has our beloved Southland, and no tradition was more stressed than Christian education. One of the finest characteristics of the education we have received is that we have been able to grow broad without growing shallow; we have never attempted to tear away the indispensable foundation stones of life and offer in their place some man-made substitute, but the more developed we have become the more earnestly we have been the defenders of the Faith.

"By their fruits ye shall know them"—come with me into the various walks of life and let us consider together the manner in which Mary Baldwin girls have acquitted themselves in the many positions in which they have been placed."

She then referred to some of the outstanding alumnae of the school who are recognized as leaders in various fields of endeavor, including those of art, literature, politics, education and religion.

"On and on we could add to the list of notable women of this land who have had their training here, but it is not given to all of us to become distinguished, and this roll call would not be complete if we failed to pay tribute to that vast number of our students who have made homes, trained families and maintained standards that not only make, but keep a nation great.

"With these facts before us can not we truthfully say this school has fulfilled the mission for which it was established; training her daughters to be corner stones, 'polished after the similitude of a palace.'"

"But we are here to meet the problem of the present. Mary Baldwin must be an A-Grade College, and acknowledged as such, is it not the time for us, the daughters of this great old school, to ask ourselves the question whether we have not been trained for such a time as this?"

"We should have in every locality a Mary Baldwin Alumnae Chapter, working steadily for the accomplishment of this task; we must have leaders who are acquainted with the needs, interested in the work, enthusiastic and confident of success. Much depends on the courage to start out, the grit to keep on, and loyalty to the end."

At the conclusion of the program, Miss Nancy McFarland very graciously expressed the appreciation of the Alumnae for the untiring efforts of its President, and the decided advancement of the Association under her capable direction, to which Mrs. Russell responded by asking that every girl present be a committee of one to enlarge the membership and scope of service of the Alumnae Association.

Among the out of town girls were: Mrs. Cary Buford Price of Salem, Mrs. Tory Kinnier Quick, Jr., Mrs. Terese De Latour Herrick, and Miss Mildred Kinnier of Lynchburg. The latter gave a charming greeting from the Lynchburg Chapter.

Roanoke representatives included Mrs. Sarah Caldwell Butler, Mrs. Fau Lee Williams, Miss Elizabeth Nelson, Mrs. Mary Smith Coffin, and Miss Virginia Sneed, who as Chairman reported the activities of their Chapter. Mrs. Ethel Gibbs Lockridge of Raphine, was also present. The Granddaughters of Mary Baldwin, daughters of "old girls," present students at the school, were guests of the Association at the luncheon. Immediately preceding the singing of the school song, "White and Yellow," which formally closed the program, Miss Higgins was presented with a bouquet of flowers by one of the Granddaughters who said in doing so, "What Miss Baldwin meant to you, Miss Higgins means to us."

Mrs. Russell in behalf of the Alumnae Association expressed deep gratitude to Mr. J. H. C. Grasty for his generosity in donating the use of the attractive Country Club Inn for the luncheon.

On the evening of October fourth, at eight o'clock, an open Forum was held at the home of Mrs. Russell, at which time suggestions helpful to the organization of new chapters, and all questions bearing on their success were discussed. This meeting was attended by about forty girls and proved most helpful.

CHRISTMAS BAZAAR, NOVEMBER 29, 1927

For the last five years the Alumnae Association has annually made one BIG, concentrated, Financial effort in the form of a BAZAAR, held some time in November. The proceeds of this sale are given as a whole to the College Fund. All old girls, wherever they may be, are earnestly requested to contribute some attractive and salable article. The success of the Bazaar is dependent on the support of each individual girl, and so you are urged to send in your gift to Miss Margaret Kent Bell, 241 E. Frederick St., Staunton, Va., no later than November 20, 1927. If you belong to a Chapter, see that your Chapter sends a box, and let's have a friendly competition among the Chapters to give the best Christmas surprise to Mary Baldwin and the College Fund!

LUNCHEON AT MARTINSBURG

(Extract from a Martinsburg paper)

The first annual luncheon of the recently organized Lower Valley Chapter of Mary Baldwin Alumnae was held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 at the Green Parrot tea room. Mrs. Margaret Kable Russell and Mrs. Charlotte Ranson Taylor, of Staunton, Va., Mrs. Keightley Timberlake Wilson and Mrs. Audrey Blackford Hicks, of Charles Town, Miss Alice Osborne, of Shenandoah Junction, Miss Frances Capper and Miss Elsie Rosenberger, of Winchester, Va., besides resident alumnae, gathered at a most attractively arranged table and enjoyed a delicious three-course luncheon.

Mrs. Russell, president of the Alumnae Association, and Mrs. Taylor, president of the Staunton Chapter, brought messages both inspiring and interesting. Letters of regret from many alumnae in the vicinity were read and a most delightful feature of the program was the paper, an exquisite bit of prose, written by Miss Virginia Lucas, of "Rion Hall," Jefferson county, and read by Mrs. Wilson. This article, delightful even to those who were too young to know the many names brought from her memory's treasure house, was concluded with an original poem and brought the program to a close.

It was planned that some of those of the Chapter attending the luncheon yesterday should make the trip to Staunton on October 4, the annual gathering and luncheon of the Alumnae Association in memory of the birth of Mary Baldwin.

The Lower Valley Chapter hopes to make the luncheon one of two annual affairs, having a business meeting in the spring and the luncheon in the fall. The business meeting next spring will be held in Charles Town.

Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Taylor, who were guests of Mrs. M. A. Snodgrass, left this morning for their homes stopping en route in Winchester to attend the Regional Flower Show at the Handley School.

BIRTHDAY CARDS

We are now beginning our second year on the Birthday Cards. We were delighted with the many appreciative replies to our greeting. Did you get yours? If not, send in your birth-date (day and month, not year) to the Association, and we will see that you receive it.

The Alumnae Association wishes to thank Mary Benham Mitchell Black for her untiring co-operation and service in getting out the Birthday Greetings. She is a splendid worker, cheerful and enthusiastic, and we are greatly in her debt for the time and energy she has so gladly contributed to our need. Because of other duties, Mrs. Black is forced to resign, and we feel that we are very fortunate indeed, in having secured Miss Dorothy Hisey of Staunton, a last year's senior at Mary Baldwin, to undertake the Chairmanship of the Birthday Cards.

Have we your birthday?

OUR BIRTHDAY CARD TURNED OUT TO BE A TREASURE

So the girls have written, we quote a few:

"Across the Years" is lovely and I read it several times every day. It is like a refreshing glimpse of Mary Baldwin and old friends."

"I wish to thank you for the beautiful poem I received on my birthday. I am going to have it framed so that I can keep it as a constant reminder of the happy days I spent at Mary Baldwin."

"I don't think any gift has contributed more to my pleasure on a very happy birthday than the beautiful poem of Mrs. Montgomery which arrived this morning from the Alumnae Association. It is certainly a charming idea and warms one's heart greatly."

"Thank you for the beautiful birthday remembrance. It recalls many happy memories of the old school days. Sometime I hope to visit the dear old Mary Baldwin and meet once more old friends."

"I received the very dear card you so thoughtfully sent me on my birthday, in behalf of my Alma Mater, and it made me quite happy. Words are so inadequate when one wishes to express a love as deep as my love for dear old M. B. S. and I want you to know that I am always greatly interested in anything concerning the school and the old girls. We have not been in Nashville long enough to get settled, however, when we do, I want to join the Nashville Alumnae Chapter."

"I want to thank you and through you the Alumnae Association for the lovely birthday card sent me. The card is indeed an artistic treasure and I am having it framed for permanent enjoyment."

ORGANIZATION

We are trying very hard to organize local chapters in every locality where there are ten or more old girls. These chapters will be a pleasure socially, and through the united effort of a group of girls much can be accomplished for our Alma Mater. We want YOU, we NEED you. Won't you DO your part?

The following old girls are trying to organize local chapters in these various states:

Charlotte, N. C.—Miss Helenora Withers, 400 Queen's Road.

Cumberland, Md.—Mrs. Anne Cochran Doub, Washington St.

Huntington, W. Va.—Mrs. Permele Elliott Francis, (Mrs. James B.) "Park Hills."

Ohio State has been divided into four zones, each one to have a local chapter. They are Cleveland, Cincinnati, Toledo and Dayton. Mrs. Elizabeth Hodge Risser, Columbus Grove, Ohio is State Chairman and is undertaking to find a chairman in each of the above mentioned cities, and establish local chapters.

Won't you co-operate with them and help us carry out our slogan "EVERY MARY BALDWIN GIRL A MEMBER OF THE MARY BALDWIN ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION."

MARY BALDWIN ALUMNAE GROUP ORGANIZED IN RICHMOND

(Extract from a Richmond paper)

"Under the leadership of Mrs. Thomas H. Russell, president of the Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association, a Richmond chapter of that association was formally organized yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Cary Ellis Stern, 1700 Grove avenue.

Seventeen former Mary Baldwin students were present at this opening meeting and elected officers to govern the local chapter, as follows:

Mrs. Cary Ellis Stern, chairman; Mrs. T. Archibald Cary, vice-chairman; Mrs. John Randolph, secretary; Mrs. Stuart Ragland, treasurer.

Among the active members of the chapter are: Mrs.

T. Archibald Cary, Mrs. O. B. Hill, Mrs. N. T. Cooke, Mrs. Edward Crosby Darling, Mrs. Wymond Cabell, Mrs. George Sprinkel, Mrs. Walter Cone, Mrs. Ernest Trice, Mrs. Chas. A. Dempsey, Mrs. Croxton Gordon, Mrs. Wm. Fairfax Gray, Mrs. A. Homeir, Mrs. R. R. Roberts, Mrs. Wm. Robert Vawter.

Mrs. Russell told the local chapter yesterday that the expansion of Mary Baldwin to its present status of a Class A college demanded enthusiastic and active support from the alumnae of the college. With Mrs. Russell's assistance the local chapter made plans for immediate activity. Regular meetings are proposed to carry out the chapter's program."

Mrs. Stern is to be congratulated on her enthusiasm and energy in enlisting the interest of so large a group of Richmond alumnae. If you are one and have not joined, won't you do so immediately? They need you. A second meeting was held at Mrs. Stern's home Wednesday, November 2nd.

MEDITATIONS

OF A MARY BALDWIN NEWS LETTER

Lucky Me!

I am Useful:

"Such a thrill as I got from the last News-Letter! However, one of my very dearest friends must be among the Lost Alumnae. Don't you know anything of Maisie Margaret Evans of East Orange, N. J.? Can't you trace her?

(MRS.) ELSIE JESSER McCONNELL,
Hamilton, Ohio.

"I have our list of alumnae members as published in the March, 1927, NEWS LETTER at hand and after careful perusal of same I find twenty-four members listed therein who reside in Charleston, West Va., quite a few of them being well known women of this city. Might I ask for information regarding a chapter formation here?

RUBY FARROW VIERHELLER,
Charleston, W. Va.

I am Appreciated:

"You cannot know how I appreciate the NEWS LETTER; many pleasant minutes have been spent looking it over. I have been so out of touch with the school the past several years that I am most happy to have a new contact."

(MRS.) HELEN CREED HATCHETT,
165 Corona St., Denver, Colo.

I am Popular:

"When the NEWS LETTER came in, I was no good for a housekeeper, wife or mother until I had scanned every page. Honestly, it's wonderful.

(MRS.) JESSIE GREGG BARNWELL,
Florence, S. C.

"How much I have enjoyed the NEWS LETTER! You folks have certainly put a big thing across and I think it is marvelous. As I read it I wished I were right there to help you in any way I can."

WINIFRED EISENBERG,
Norfolk Public Library, Norfolk, Va.

ALUMNAE SERVICE BUREAU

A letter recently received by the Alumnae office from an old girl says:

"In some of the literature sent me by Mary Baldwin Alumnae Association I think it was stated that members or their families visiting, stopping, or moving to localities where there are resident M. B. girls would, on request, be put in touch with same. If such is the case I shall appreciate your giving me details of the plan. My youngest son is likely to be transferred to Jackson, Mississippi, he has no acquaintances there, so I shall be so glad if you can put him in touch with desirable acquaintances. * * * * My last NEWS LETTER was the July issue, has there been another issue since then? I should be glad to pay a yearly subscription price for it to be issued regularly as there is nothing that comes in my mail more enjoyed."

We should like to emphasize this Service and say that the Alumnae Association is glad of the opportunity to serve any old girls moving into a new locality at any time possible, by putting her in touch with other Baldwin girls who may be there.

CHAPTER CHAT

(Intimate Hints on Organization)

It depends upon what kind of By-Laws you have adopted as to how often your meetings are held. There are a good many things to be considered in fixing the dates of the meetings, for instance, it is well to have the Fall meeting so that you may receive and talk over what has been done at the October 4th meeting in Staunton. If you could arrange to have your election of officers and any changes on your Board take place in the Spring, and fully reported before the May meeting is held in Staunton, it makes it much easier for us because the NEWS LETTER, which is published in the summer can then contain a full account of the year's activities of each chapter. Of course, it is most necessary to hold your Board meetings regularly so that the policy of the chapter and any working plans may be carefully considered and arranged for, as the chapter as a whole meets so infrequently. The responsibility is thus shared by its officers and does not rest on the Chairman alone. In other words, we advise the chapter's By-Laws to be fashioned after the National Constitution, taking out so much as applies to local work and problems.

Our experience has been that one big social meeting a year, with good speakers for the occasion, and an interesting program, with the meeting at an attractive and popular place is almost essential to the esprit de corps of a chapter. This is a good chance to get a 100% membership of Baldwin girls in your locality to join the chapter. Wouldn't it be an inspiration to feel that you had accomplished that for the National Organization? Why not go after it as a definite goal?

When your members are secured and your organization complete, remember that people are too busy to get together for purely social reasons often. Emphasize the need the college has for your efforts in its behalf. Take a definite financial aim and make one big, concentrated, co-operative effort a year to put something over for the College Fund. Every other alumnae organization is doing this. Your community probably knows a great deal more about some other alumnae association than it does that of Mary Baldwin. Put yourselves on the map. Let us stand for something in our home towns that is cultural and uplifting, and at the same time help Mary Baldwin to go forward.

ALUMNAE OFFICE

The Alumnae Association wishes to express its regret at the resignation of Miss Eugenia Bumgardner who so ably conducted the Alumnae Office for the first year of its existence. The success of the NEWS LETTER was due to her efforts and we feel it a great loss that she should find it necessary to give up the work. We are very glad, however, to announce that we have secured the services of Dorothy Morriss Fauver and Dorothy Curry, who are giving us part of their time and conducting the correspondence, as well as editing the NEWS LETTER. We urge all old girls to look us up whenever they come to Staunton. The Alumnae Office needs you.

WHAT YOU OWE THE ALUMNAE ASSOCIATION

As an Individual:

1. To join it.
2. To pay your dues.
3. To co-operate.
4. To send in news items and corrected addresses.
5. To contribute to the Christmas Bazaar.
6. To subscribe for the Directory.
7. To give us constructive criticism concerning our effort to enlarge the National Association and increase its usefulness to our Alma Mater.

As a Chapter:

1. To undertake a definite financial aim.
2. To make your membership 100% of the Baldwin girls in your community.
3. To have live meetings with interesting programs.
4. To make every member feel you need her by giving her something to do.
5. To hold your Board meetings regularly.

We have 969 old Baldwin girls enrolled in the Alumnae Association.

We should have 4,831 members.

How will you help to solve this problem?
